

E. J. PFEFFER, 90, EXPIRES EARLY THIS MORNING

Edward J. Pfeffer, 219 Baltimore St., who observed his 90th birthday on November 12, died this morning at 6:25 o'clock at the Warner Hospital where he was admitted last Thursday. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

He was born in Cumberland Twp. on a farm at the rear of the State Police barracks along the Fairfield Rd., a son of the late Frederick G. and Mary Ann (Epley) Pfeffer.

For many years he operated a brick yard at the present site of the National Museum and made bricks for the Gettysburg College chapel, Brua Hall, Claiborne Hall, McKnight Hall, and buildings at Mt. St. Mary's and St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg. He lost his brick business through condemnation by the federal government due to its proximity to the battlefield.

Buys Tile Business

He acquired a half interest in the Gettysburg Drain Tile Co. in 1905 and in 1918 acquired the entire interest. On June 1, 1951, he retired, the business now being operated by his son, Fred G. Pfeffer. Until the time of his death he served in an advisory capacity.

Mr. Pfeffer was frequently consulted by the Battlefield Commission regarding old landmarks on the battlefield. He was well versed in battlefield history and was a consistent reader of stories on the Battle of Gettysburg.

He was the last survivor of the Grand Army Band and, as a trumpet player, took part in dedication services for most of the monuments on the battlefield.

Funeral On Thursday

Mr. Pfeffer was a member of the Presbyterian Church, Good Samaritan Lodge of Masons 336, Royal Arch Chapter 266, Gettysburg Commandery 79, Zomba Shrine of Harrisburg, IOOF of Gettysburg, and the POS of A of Gettysburg.

Surviving are his widow, the former Lila Ziegler with whom he observed their 60th wedding anniversary on September 23; one son, Fred G., Baltimore St., former burgess of Gettysburg; a granddaughter, Helen Frederica Pfeffer, and one sister, Mrs. Huber Miller, Akron, O.

Funeral services Thursday at 9:30 a.m. at the Bender Funeral Home, conducted by his pastor, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

AG ECONOMIST GIVES TALK TO CLUB MEETING

Fred Robertson, extension agricultural economist from Pennsylvania State University, was the speaker Monday evening at the meeting of the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club at Banker's Restaurant.

Fred H. Attinger, associate county farm agent, introduced the speaker and noted that the session marked the observance by the local club of Farm-City week.

Richard C. Waybright was introduced as the winner of the "Outstanding Young Farmer" award by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce.

President Harry A. Spangler announced receipt of a $25 Christmas saving fund check from an anonymous donor and expressed the thanks of the club to the donor. He also announced an intercity club meeting will be held this evening at Chambersburg at 6 o'clock.

Called Agribusiness

Farming has "evolved from agriculture to agribusiness," Robertson told the Kiwanians. "Over a period of years farming has changed from relative self-sufficiency to relative interdependence. Thirty years ago farmers bought 20 per cent of what they needed for production; today they buy about half of what they need. New industries have come into being to meet the needs of modern farms, such as farm implement companies, meat packers, food canners and freezers. In addition established industries, such as rubber, chemicals and pharmaceuticals, have expanded to fill the changing needs of agriculture.

"A multitude of social and economic factors influenced the change from agriculture to agribusiness. Economic efficiency demands that business be of the right size. The cost-price squeeze demands the least

German Exchange Student At GHS Wins "Democracy" Contest

A 17-year-old German exchange student, who as an infant was carried by his parents as they fled the Russians, today was announced as the winner in Gettysburg's "I Speak For Democracy" contest.

He is Dietz Borowski, who came to Gettysburg last August as an international exchange student under a program worked out by the Student Council of the local high school and the American Field Service to spend a year as a student at Gettysburg High School.

As a member of the Senior class at the high school here he is studying American history, problems of democracy and English, among other subjects. To help him get an idea of the operation of student government at the high school, the Student Council has him sit in as an observer at its meetings.

Winner Among 85

Borowski put his knowledge of the workings of democracy to good stead by defeating a total of 85 candidates to take first place in the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce "I Speak For Democracy" Contest.

His four-minute, 55-second talk on democracy will be heard this evening at 7:15 o'clock over WGET. During the Junior Chamber of Commerce program, Borowski, as

TEACHER TELLS AUXILIARY OF DAY CARE WORK

Members of the Warner Hospital Auxiliary had an opportunity to learn of some of the work now being done by Miss Elizabeth Rutledge, supervisor of special education in the Adams County and Gettysburg Jointure Schools, as well as the problems she faces, and the expanded program she would like to follow if a larger staff were provided to help handle the many needs.

Miss Rutledge spoke at a meeting of the auxiliary Monday afternoon in the board room at the hospital.

"It is not enough to determine that a child is handicapped in some way, and then just put him in a special classroom," Miss Rutledge pointed out.

"A school psychologist is met with a hostile attitude in many cases when she calls on the parents of a child she has interviewed, and the statement most commonly heard from the parents is: 'It isn't you we have anything against, but what you have come to talk about.'"

Help Child When Young

Miss Rutledge, in explaining her close association with the Day Care Center, emphasized the need for helping a child when he is very young. "Not only will the budget for the program be often set up as much as two years in advance, and pre-school testing will show more accurately the future needs of the child. Not only is an examination made as a result of a recommendation of the school, but any parent wishing a referral to the psychologist may set up an appointment by contacting the child's principal or superintendent," she said.

Because of her extensive training, Miss Rutledge said she would like to include work with the older student in finding his talents—outstanding ability in science, music, dramatics, dancing, etc., and to help the teachers discover and develop these abilities; such work is in-

Navy Plans To Launch Test Satellite On December 4th

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Navy scientists hope to launch the first U.S. test satellite a week from tomorrow—just two months after Russia's pioneer Sputnik was fired into distant space.

A source high in the Vanguard satellite project said Dec. 4 has been picked for the attempt to send aloft a six-pound sphere six inches in diameter.

The attempt, he said, will be made about dawn at the U.S. Missile Test Center, Cape Canaveral, Fla. If conditions are not right at that time, the source said, another effort will be made perhaps two days later.

Plans call for one or more launchings of small test spheres in December, with a fully instrumented 21-pound satellite to be fired in March. There has been some talk of a January launching of the fully developed satellite if the test succeeds.

98 PRESENTED CERTIFICATES FROM SCHOOL

Marking the 30th anniversary of the Adams County Leadership Training school, the closing session of the 1957 school was held Monday evening at the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren when plans were made for a 1958 school and certificates were presented to 98 persons who completed courses of study Monday night.

An assembly session was held in the social rooms of the church after the final class session Monday evening.

After the singing of Christmas carols led by Prof. Charles Rowland, who conducted a church music course in the school term, the president of the Council of Christian Education, Charles Helwig, presented honorariums to the members of the teaching staff.

3 First Students Present

Attention was called to the school's 30th anniversary and to the fact that three persons who attended the first session held by the late Dr. M. Hadwin Fischer at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary 30 years ago were in the 1957 school. Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, professor emeritus at the seminary and a teacher in the 1957 school, has been on the leadership training school faculty for 27 of the school's 30 years.

It was announced that there will be a school next year and the school's board of directors will hold an evaluating session December 6 at the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren to review the session just ended and to talk of 1958 plans.

THREE YOUTHS HELD FOR COURT ON 2 CHARGES

Timothy R. Barrett, 21, New Oxford R. 1; Robert Imier, 19, Hanover, and John B. Polhemus, 19, Abbottstown R. 1, were held for court by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Monday afternoon following a more than hour long hearing on charges of robbery and robbery with accomplice arising from the beating of Seaman Robert J. Hoffman, Gettysburg R. 2, early Saturday morning.

Polhemus, the only one of the three represented by counsel, entered an innocent plea and waived a hearing, but he remained throughout the hearing for the other two youths and he and his attorney questioned Hoffman during the hearing.

Barrett was the only one of the three defendants who took the stand and he insisted that while he and his "buddies" had picked up a sailor on the night in question and took $5 from him "it wasn't this character"—meaning Hoffman.

Attacked And Robbed

Hoffman told the justice that he was hitchhiking to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hoffman, Gettysburg R. 2, on a weekend leave from his station at Norfolk when he was picked up by three young men near Cross Keys. The car proceeded toward Gettysburg, he said, and near the "three-lane highway," one of the men asked that the car be stopped. After the four had gotten out of the car one of the men attempted to strike Hoffman, he said, but he saw the motion of the object being used to hit him, and he fended off the major portion of that blow. He turned to defend himself and another of the men struck him "with a pipe it seemed like" and

GIVES ROTARY CLUB ADVICE ON BUYING STOCKS

"Don't go into the stock market unless you have money to invest," Robert E. Montgomery, resident account executive of the York office of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Beane, told the local Rotarians at their meeting Monday evening at the YWCA.

A registered representative of the New York Stock Exchange, Montgomery told the Rotarians: "When you buy common stock you become a part owner of a firm. If the firm makes money, you make money. But you also run the risks of any owner of a business."

"When stocks are listed on the New York Exchange," means there has been an investigation which shows the firm is reliable. But the person buying stock should make a thorough investigation of the company of which he is becoming a part owner. Every one of the firms serving as representatives of the New York Stock Exchange has available, free of charge, as much information as it is possible to obtain concerning the firms which have stock on the exchange. We want the potential buyer to thoroughly study this information and make up his own mind.

When To Invest

"We also advise potential purchasers of stock to invest only money which is available for investing. First they should take care of their regular expenses. If they have a home, it should be free of mortgages, or nearly so. They should have enough on hand not only to take care of their regular current needs but emergency needs, such as sudden illness. They should have sufficient insurance to take care of their families if anything happens to them. Then, if there is money left over, it is the intelligent

Howard Trostle, 88, Retired Farmer, Dies

Howard Y. Trostle, 88, 125 N. Washington St., died at 7:28 o'clock Monday night as he arrived at the Warner Hospital. He had been in ill health for some time.

A farmer all of his life, he had resided in Mt. Pleasant and Straban Twp. for many years before moving to Gettysburg nine years ago.

A native of the county he was a son of the late George and Lena (Kennel) Trostle, and was a member of Salem EUB church. His wife, the former Carrie E. Toot, died in 1949. Surviving are a number of nieces and grandnephews.

Funeral services Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the Bender Funeral Home with the Rev. Merritt A. Copenhaver, his pastor, officiating. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may visit at the funeral home Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

LOCAL WIDOW SEEKS TO GET PROPERTY BACK

Mrs. Carrie B. Olinger, 72, 137 Hanover St., has brought an action in equity to regain the double property at 137 and 139 Hanover St. which she conveyed July 5, 1946, to Murray W. and Ruby Lee Eyer, Detour, Md.

Mrs. Olinger, who is widow, said in her complaint filed with the county prothonotary that she was suffering from a nervous breakdown at the time she was taken to Westminster to "sign over" the property to the Eylers and was "not in possession of her normal faculties."

Included in the petition was an agreement in which the Eylers agreed to "support, maintain and care for the plaintiff for the rest of her natural life."

In her complaint Mrs. Olinger said that the Eylers have not cared for her with the exception of permitting her to live rent free in one half of the house and that since about May, 1949, the defendants have collected the rent from the other half of the house.

She added that since May, 1949, she has been supported by public assistance. She asks the court to declare the deed of July 5, 1946, turning the property over to the Eylers null and void and asks return of her property unencumbered and an accounting of the rents received from the property. Attorney Donald Oyler represents Mrs. Olinger.

AUXILIARY HAS SPECIAL PARTY

A special Thanksgiving program was presented Monday evening under the direction of Mrs. Howard Hartzell, program chairman, at the meeting of the Auxiliary of the Albert J. Lentz American Legion Post at the post home on Baltimore St.

Mrs. Hartzell and Mrs. A. A. Maust presented readings. Miss Doris Hamme sang several vocal solos accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Levere Hamme. Group singing was led by Mrs. Paul Spangler. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Stanley Buntene and Mrs. Eugene Sickles.

Delegates appointed to attend the Four-County Auxiliary Council meeting in York December 5 were Mrs. Fred Gormley, Mrs. Mary Fridinger, Mrs. Hartzell, Mrs. Spangler, Mrs. Buntene, Mrs. Edgar Shelleman, Mrs. William Pinko and Miss Shirley Fridinger.

It was announced that 50-cent gifts will be exchanged at the Christmas party to be held December 9. Named as committees were: Mrs. Gormley, Mrs. Hartzell and Mrs. Fridinger, refreshments; Mrs. Spangler and Mrs. George Martin, games, and Mrs. Sickles, Mrs. Gormley, Mrs. Buntene, Mrs. Edith Bushman and Mrs. William McCrorie, decorations.

Eisenhower Is Progressing Satisfactorily From Chill; Make Evaluation Of Illness

By MARVIN I. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said today President Eisenhower is "progressing satisfactorily" but that doctors are making "a further evaluation of his illness."

Associate White House press secretary Anne Wheaton said at 10:22 a.m. a report of the doctor's findings would be made "as soon as possible"—meaning later today.

Eisenhower suffered what the White House described as a "chill" yesterday shortly after he returned from the airport where he welcomed King Mohammed V. of Morocco.

Question Seriousness

The latest White House announcement raised the question whether the illness might be more serious than originally thought. Asked if indications were that the President's condition, might be more serious than originally indicated, Mrs. Wheaton declined any comment. She refused, despite repeated questions from reporters, to go beyond her brief announcement.

That announcement said: "The President is progressing satisfactorily. However, his doctors are making a further evaluation of the case at this time. A report of this evaluation will be made as soon as possible."

Asked Significance

This statement followed an earlier announcement, at 8:55 a.m., that the President "is progressing very well."

A reporter asked if there was any significance in the difference in wording of the two statements

Trucker Upsets 15 Tons Of Prune Juice

Giovanni Duttra, a Hanover truck driver, suffered head injuries and a fractured leg yesterday when his Boston-bound truck veered off the Massachusetts Turnpike, spilling 15 tons of bottled prune juice over the toll road, near Framingham, Mass.

Investigating police theorized that Duttra dozed at the wheel and lost control of the truck, which tore down 60 feet of heavy steel wire fence. The truck body was sheared off at the chassis floor when it struck two huge steel girders holding a directional sign. The truck was owned by L. Earl Pitzer, of Aspers.

Duttra was admitted to Framingham Union Hospital.

The prune juice was from the Duffy-Mott plant at Aspers.

Four Churches To Hold Union Service

A union Thanksgiving service will be held Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the Mt. Carmel EUB Church, near Orrtanna, in cooperation with Mt. Hope and Mt. Calvary Churches of that charge and the Orrtanna Methodist Church.

The Rev. Roger Burtner, pastor of the host church, will conduct the service and the Orrtanna Methodist pastor, the Rev. Norman Marden, will deliver the sermon. The offering will go to the Orrtanna charge Bible school for next summer.

This is the first union service of its kind for the churches involved, and plans are for a continuation of the series next year with the service to be held in the Orrtanna Methodist Church.

Ronald Gigous Wins Closing Grid Contest With 18 Wins

Ronald Gigous, 235 W. Middle St., won first prize in the final of the series of weekly football contests, sponsored by The Gettysburg Times and 20 cooperating merchants, by correctly naming 18 winners in last week's contest.

Three contestants tied for the second prize. They are Mrs. Irvin Eicholtz, Arendtsville; Marie Sheffer, R. 3, and Judy L. Ridge, 121 W. Main St., Emmitsburg. All selected 17 winners and had feature game point total predictions of 39.

The feature game total was 12, Gettysburg and F. and M. tying at 6-6.

Tony Sieders, 150 Kennedy St., Chambersburg, also selected 17 winners but was relegated to the third prize award on his feature game prediction of 40 points. A fifth contestant correctly picked 17 games but had a point total of 42.

Gigous, whose feature game point selection was 55, will receive a $15 merchandise certificate while the second prize of $7.50 will be split three ways between Mrs. Eicholtz, Marie Sheffer and Judy Ridge. Sieders receives the $2.50 third prize certificate.

A total of 243 took part in the final contest. They selected winners as follows:

One, 18 correct; five, 17; 20, 16; 46, 15; 42, 14; 36, 13; 39, 12; 30, 11; 12, 10; five, nine, two, eight; three, seven, one, six; one, five.

WORKMAN BADLY HURT AS TRUCK BACKS OVER HIM

Clarence J. Shultz, 51, Taneytown R. 1, a state Highways Department employee in Adams County, was critically injured Monday afternoon at 3:10 o'clock when a backing highways truck struck him, hurling him to the roadway and then backed over his leg and abdomen.

As a result of the compound fracture of his left foot, surgeons at the Warner Hospital had to amputate the extremity.

The tearing weight of the truck wheels passing over him caused "avulsive" injuries to the thigh and severe contusions of the abdomen. Avulsive means the flesh was torn away.

Working Near Heidlersburg

State police said the accident occurred while a crew from the Highway Department was working on Route 234, three miles east of Heidlersburg, toward Hampton, in Reading Twp.

Shultz, who has been a Highway Department employee in the county since 1955, was one of a group of men shoveling excess shale off the highway as the crew made repairs to the shoulders of the road.

One-way traffic was maintained during the operation, but it was necessary for the truck, driven according to police by Claude Baker, 22, Hanover R. 5, to back around a grader in the course of its operations.

Failed To Hear Warning

As it did so, police said, Baker sounded his horn a number of times to warn the crew of the backing vehicle but it was believed that Shultz did not hear the warning and failed to notice the truck backing toward him.

He was rushed to the hospital by ambulance, and his condition today was listed as "critical."

CANNERS NAME JOHN O. HAUSER AS PRESIDENT

John A. Hauser, Biglerville, president of the C. H. Musselman Company, was re-elected president of the Pennsylvania Cannery Association Monday at the association's annual convention at York.

All officers of the state association were re-elected and the list includes E. J. Nowicki Jr., Gettysburg production manager of the Knouse Foods Cooperative, as a vice president.

The other officers named include: Charles O. Koller, New Freedom, and W. Howard Green, Concordville, vice presidents; Donald Snyder, Delta, and James M. Shriver Sr., of the B. F. Shriver Company, Littlestown, directors.

The business session was held at noon Monday with about 300 delegates in attendance at the 43rd annual sessions at the Yorktown Hotel. President Hauser was presiding over the convention sessions.

Government Control Feared

In the principal address Monday morning E. E. Burns, Altoona, N. Y., vice president of the National Canners Association, warned that "continued overproduction could lead to government controls — and these have inevitably resulted in unwieldy inventories and debt."

As a remedy for overproduction, Burns suggested that, while supply and demand still control the market, canners could adopt the policy of intelligent planning with foresight. Though Mother Nature is the controlling agency, he said, canners need not be passive to her dictates.

As a further improvement of the industry's stature, he urged good public or civic relations, good grower relations.

TO RE-LOCATE FIVE MILES OF LINCOLN ROAD

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (P) — Highways Secretary Lewis M. Stevens advised members of the Chambersburg Automobile Club last night that relocation of U. S. 30 west of here is now in the designing stage.

Stevens pinpointed this as one of several projects planned for Franklin County by the Highways Department with state and federal funds.

The U. S. 30, or Lincoln Highway, project he said, involves a five-mile stretch between Port Loudon and Saint Thomas.

"This project must certainly be good news to those in this area who are eager to see Lincoln Highway modernized," he said, "for, in truth, U. S. 30 is of vital importance not only to Chambersburg but the entire county."

Outlines New Route

Stevens outlined briefly the proposed general route of the so-called Anthracite Expressway through Franklin County and discussed at length the controlled access principle of the Federal Interstate Highway System.

He also outlined these other highway projects for the county: Reconstruction of nearly 10 miles of Route 13 between Mercersburg and Greencastle; elimination of hazards along about five miles of Route 75 in Metal Township; a new bridge near the village of Markes; reconstruction of three miles of a legislative route near Waynesboro; reconstruction of more than 2½ miles of a legislative route near New Franklin.

The last two projects, he said, are in the department's long range program, with construction dependent on finances.

Business Outlook Good

Assurance that only minor business recessions cloud the nation's economic outlook came from Secretary Davlin.

"Given peace," Davlin said, "there seems no indication that the nation will not continue growth. Even the most cautious of business analysts can see nothing ahead worse than the minor recessions we saw in 1949 and 1953."

"We have many more cushions built into the national economy to sustain mass purchasing power during business readjustments than we had in 1929."

Revival Services Going To Continue

Revival services which began Monday night at the Mt. Hope EUB Church will continue through the coming two weeks, at 7:30 o'clock nightly, Rev. Roger Burtner, pastor, announced today.

Rev. Roland Garvin, Newburg, conducted the service Monday night. Rev. Mr. Burtner will be in charge tonight, Wednesday and Thursday. Friday, Rev. Bernard Fogle, Jefferson, will conduct a special program for children.

Wednesday evening the Orlanna Charge Youth Fellowship will hold its banquet at Mt. Hope Church at 6 o'clock and then attend the revival services afterward.

Next week, Monday through Friday, Rev. Russell Oyer, of Lohr's Memorial EUB Church, Hanover, will be in charge of the special services.

Post $16.45 For Wednesday Hearing

Cooperation between police and an alert citizen led to the arrest of a hit-and-run driver near Emmitsburg Sunday afternoon.

A Frederick resident James H. Caniford, notified Frederick police at 12:51 o'clock Sunday afternoon that he had seen a car strike a parked vehicle, and then continue on. He gave a description of the car and its license number.

Fifty minutes later Maryland State Trooper William G. Morgan, who had been notified by Frederick police took Gerald S. Cogan, 19-year-old Mt. St. Mary's College student, into custody charged with failing to stop after striking an unattended vehicle. Cogan posted $16.45 collateral for a hearing Wednesday night.

Mrs. N. L. Horn Dies Nov. 10 In Virginia

Friends here have received word of the sudden death Sunday, November 10, of Mrs. Elizabeth Horn, a former pastor of Trinity Reformed Church here, now Trinity United Church of Christ.

Mrs. Horn died in Lynchburg, Va., where the Horns had been living since the Rev. Mr. Horn retired from the ministry. They left Gettysburg in June, 1930, and went to Baltimore where the Rev. Mr. Horn was pastor of Zion Church for about 20 years. She had been ill with the flu but died suddenly of an embolism or cerebral hemorrhage.

Her husband and three children, Norman Jr., Elizabeth and Nancy, survive.

Services were held at Lynchburg.

Clarence H. Hawk Rites Held Today

Funeral services for Clarence Herbert Hawk, 73, who died Sunday evening at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. Hawk, Taneytown, after a brief illness, were held this afternoon from the Fuss Funeral Home, Taneytown, with his pastor, Rev. Stanley B. Jennings, officiating. Interment was in the Taneytown Lutheran Church Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Ernest Dunbar, Lloyd Dorn, Harry Dougherty, Percy Putnam, Carroll Valentine and Joseph Smith.

MERCURY DROPS ALONG SEABOARD

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Cold weather prevailed over most of the nation early today with the Eastern Seaboard registering sharp temperature drops as cold Canadian air seeped southward to central Florida.

From Maine southward along the Atlantic Coast, colder weather was recorded at most points. Tallahassee, Fla., went from 70 degrees at midnight Sunday to 47 degrees. At Tampa, the chilly air drop.

The cold air along the Eastern Seaboard came from an air mass from northwest Canada which Weather Bureau experts said was three days in moving across the country.

The Great Lakes, with many readings below 20, was the coldest section of the nation.

Permit Delivery Of Auctioned Articles

NEWARK, N. J. (P) — Auctioneer Benjamin Davis will be permitted to deliver the auctioned articles of slain gangland figure Albert Anastasia pending a court appeal. The Internal Revenue Service decided to permit delivery of the articles after a five-hour session with Davis and his attorney yesterday. The $6,000 selling price, however, was held in escrow pending a court appeal.

Davis' attorney, Maurice Austin of Hackensack, said he will start action in federal court "early next week" to recover the money.

The government stepped into the auction of Anastasia's household items last Saturday on a claim his estate owes $399,000 in back income taxes.

ABOUT 300 FACE TAX PENALTIES

Gettysburg taxpayers have paid $279,451.55 on their current $300-$375 tax bill, Collector J. Herbert Weikert announced today.

Approximately 4,300 of the town's 4,600 taxpayers have already turned in their share of the money needed to support the town, school district and county, Weikert's records show. The remaining 300 have $20-$90.20 to pay and if they do not get it paid before December 1, they will pay five per cent more.

The five per cent penalty goes into effect December 1, Weikert said today. As of January 1 he will begin placing liens on properties of those who have not paid their taxes by that date.

The Gettysburg residents so far have paid $175,536.33 school taxes, $44,494.74 borough tax, $30,968.11 county tax, $13,326.56 institution district and $15,125.81 county personal property tax.

Still owing are $1,552.65 in borough taxes, $1,585.54 county, $624.73 institution district, $56.81 personal property and $17,084.47 school district tax.

Set Hearing Date For Damage Action

December 16 at 10 a.m. has been set as the time for a hearing on a proposed settlement of the action in trespass brought by Edward J. Sneeringer, administrator of the estate of Louis Sneeringer, late of Hanover R. D., against Rodney A. Bunty.

The administrator is asking a settlement because, according to the petition, he is "satisfied there is some question concerning the defendant's liability." Louis Sneeringer, 63, was fatally injured December 29, 1956, while walking across the road two miles west of McSherrystown. He was hit by Bunty's car.

The administrator said he had spent $710 for funeral expenses and $38 for administrative expenses. The settlement, he said, covered those costs plus $452 for the estate. The deceased never married.

Ike's Illness Causes Market To Decline

NEW YORK (P) — The stock market declined moderately in fairly active early trading today following news of President Eisenhower's "chill."

Key issues were off from fractions to around a point. There were a few gainers.

Absence of panicky selling accompanied by a late ticker tape showed Wall Street was not as concerned about the President's condition as it has been on past occasions when he became ill.

Analysts noted that the market has risen in the past four sessions and that profit-taking would be the normal expectation. Word that the President is "progressing satisfactorily" reduced concern in financial quarters.

WOODWARD RITES

Funeral services for Clarence E. "Whitey" Woodward, 61, Norwood, Pa., who died suddenly early Sunday morning at the home of a daughter, Mrs. John Stover, Arden, Pa., will be held at the Cavendish Funeral Home in Norwood, Pa., at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. Friends may call there this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. Local arrangements are in charge of the Walters Funeral Home at McSherrystown.

In the list of survivors published Monday, the name of one sister, Mrs. Charles Mayron, Clifton Heights, Pa., was inadvertently omitted.

LANCASTER, Pa. (P) — The board of directors of Armstrong Cork Co. yesterday declared a dividend of 10 cents a share on the $1 par value common stock payable Dec. 20 to shareholders of record Dec. 5. This dividend, the fifth and final for the year, brings the total common stock dividend for 1957 to $1.30.

REPORT ON EXPENSES

Expenses accounts, all stating that "less than $150" had been expended, have been filed with the county election board by these candidates: Mervin I. Rice, jury commissioner; Laura S. Freed, jury commissioner; and Lloyd T. Bortner, Union Twp. tax collector.

A service of thanksgiving and thank offering was held in Zion United Church of Christ, Ardenville, Sunday morning. The thank offering amounted to $111. The service was sponsored by the Women's Guild of Zion United Church of Christ, Ardenville, and Trinity United Church of Christ, Biglerville. Mrs. Harry Kime is president of the guild.

Mrs. Revere Thomas, Biglerville, spent the weekend with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis McCracken, and family, Annville.

Miss Judy Crist, a student at Millersville State Teachers College, arrived home today to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Crist, Guernsey.

The Children's Choir of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Biglerville, will rehearse at the church Wednesday afternoon immediately after school.

A Community Thanksgiving service will be held in Trinity Lutheran Church, Ardenville, at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The service will be conducted by the Rev. Robert K. Shaul. The public is invited.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Cashtown Fire Company met Monday evening in the Community hall with 75 ladies in attendance, including 21 guests and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ardenville Fire Company.

Mrs. George Bowling, president, read a poem "Thanksgiving Day." The chaplain, Mrs. Leroy Kint, conducted devotions. The pledge to the flag was given, followed by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," with Mrs. Glenn Keller at the piano. Reports of the secretary, treasurer and various committees were given.

Mrs. Guy Miller, president of the Ardenville Fire Company Auxiliary, spoke briefly and introduced her officers.

The nominating committee, Mrs. Francis McClellan, Mrs. Floyd King, and Mrs. Joseph Rebert, reported the following slate: Vice president, Mrs. Edgar Dillon and Mrs. John Newell; secretary, Mrs. Corvan Bryan and Mrs. Hilda Diehl; treasurer, Miss Alma Fritz and Mrs. Keith Numemaker; chaplain, Mrs. Mark Bucher and Mrs. Frank Donaldson. The following committee was appointed to investigate the purchase of new, heavy and larger cooking utensils: Mrs. Leroy Kint, Mrs. Glenn Keefe and Mrs. Clarence Deardorff. It was also decided to help finance the purchase and installation of a new sink. After group singing of "Jingle Bells," Mrs. Paul Crider, Chambersburg, gave an interesting demonstration on "Holiday Arrangements." She made several Thanksgiving arrangements using flowers and fruit and several Christmas arrangements using greens and white flowers. The next meet will be held Dec. 30, at which time a Christmas party will be held with an exchange of 50-cent gifts. The November birthday committee had charge of the refreshments.

DEATHS

UNION THANKS SERVICE TO BE ON WEDNESDAY

The annual community Thanksgiving service will be held on Wednesday, 7:30 p.m., in Redeemer's United Church of Christ, as arranged by the Littlestown Ministerium. The Thanksgiving message will be delivered by the Rev. Rodney T. Yates, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church. The Rev. William C. Kams, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, will preside. An anthem will be sung by the Singing Juniors of Redeemer's Church. The evening's offering will be used to further religious instruction at Mont Alto.

The final service in the present series of union vesper services was held on Sunday evening in St. John's Church, with Pastor Kams, presiding. He offered the invocation, read the Scripture, gave a prayer and made the announcements. The Rev. Mr. Yates delivered the sermon on the subject "Having A Solid Foundation." A selection was sung by St. John's Brotherhood quartet, which includes Albert J. Starnes, Edgar E. Yealy, Glenn E. Unger and Ronald G. Streiv, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Jay D. Basehoar, who presided at the console throughout the service.

The Ministerium is now making arrangements for the annual week's preaching mission, to be held January 5 through 10 at 7:30 p.m., in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The Rev. Francis Reinberger, a professor at the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, will be the guest missionary. The pastors of the various community churches will preside each evening of the worship. The Ministerium has requested that the local organizations arrange their meetings so they will not conflict with the mission services that week.

On Winter Hike

The Boy Scouts of Troop 84 enjoyed their first winter hike on Saturday morning on the Gettysburg Battlefield. The rain and snow curtailed the distance of hiking. The group visited the Cyclorama, Jennie Wade House, Big and Little Roundtops, Devil's Den and other points of interest on the Battlefield.

Scouts enjoying the activity were: Robert Hahn, Bernard Weaver, Charles Hahn, Timothy Reinman, Dwight Streiv, Larry Altoff, Jeffrey Breighner, Michael Gladhill, Ronald Gladhill, Thomas Benner, Philip Close, Richard Hornberger, Terry Arbogast, Ronald Benner, Donald Arbogast, Lester Barnes, James Bowman, Carl Ritter, William Ritter, Thomas Shildt, and guests were Steve and Chris Renner. The boys were accompanied by Scoutmaster Edgar A. Wolfe, assistant Scoutmasters Paul E. Renner and Noah V. Brown, and troop committeemen Charles E. Ritter and Luther D. Snyder.

Home For Holiday

Students at the Pennsylvania State University, spending the Thanksgiving vacation at their respective homes include: Miss Fay Fissel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Fissel, Prince St.; Miss Marybel Marshman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Marshman, W. King St.; Tyrone Maitland, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Maitland, Charles St., and Richard Horner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Horner, M St.

Postmaster Clarence L. Schwartz Sr., Littlestown, postmaster, has announced that there will be no regular mail deliveries on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, and no window service will be offered. However, mails will be received and dispatched as usual; special deliveries and perishables will be taken to their destination.

A majority of the community stores, places of business and industries, will be closed all day Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving Day. The regular hours will be observed again starting on Friday morning. The Littlestown State Bank and the Littlestown National Bank will be closed all day Thursday.

"NOVEMBER THOUGHTS"

Warm fire burning, embers glowing... icy wind knocks at my door... and the night is dark and dreary... my thoughts turn to days... you're... it's Novembertime, by darling... once again the nights are cold... how I miss your tenderness... that now has long been told... for nights like this were yours and mine... this room, our peaceful zone... the peace is now a weary one... for I am all alone... just memories remain, my sweet... I hold each one apart... sacred treasures that I keep... locked tight within my heart... lights are low, the fire dies... the embers fade away... I would give most anything... for one yesterday... though I know this cannot be... still I'll always cling... to the thoughts that make November... seem like blushing spring.

TEACHER TELLS

cluded in the legitimate functions of a school psychologist, but until there are more of them with sufficiently broad training, and until they are better recognized, this will not be available consistently in school systems, she added.

Child Development

Miss Rutledge also expressed an interest in child development in pre-school and school-age clinics and suggested as an interesting new book "Patterns of Child Rearing—A Report on Ways of Bringing up Children," from the Laboratory of Human Development, Graduate School of Education, Harvard University. This was the result of a study conducted by 357 suburban mothers, and "tells what they have actually done with their children in the last six years, and the effects of certain kinds of parent behaviors."

Of great interest to many members was Miss Rutledge's observation that "while as yet nothing has been provided in the general program for the gifted person, the recent news items and the general demand for advanced technical training, will undoubtedly do much to speed up a program especially designed for such students."

Report Profits

Mrs. Clark S. Smith, auxiliary president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Howard Hartzell, treasurer, gave her report, which included the report that the Photo-Babe project netted a profit of $56.74 last month, and the Snack Bar showed a profit of $116.38.

Walter B. Dillon, administrator of the hospital, announced that work was progressing on the new wing and that bids would probably be issued in January, and construction underway probably in March. He thanked the auxiliary and its individual members for the generous response to the drive recently concluded.

A letter from Atty. Richard A. Brown, chairman for the fund, was read, thanking the auxiliary for the pledge of $7,800 for a private room in the new wing.

Mrs. Paul L. Roy, membership chairman, reported that to date there are 530 active members, with 153 new memberships since the September meeting. Mrs. Glenn A. Slaybaugh Sr., Biglerville, gave a report on the membership gains from Biglerville.

Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, chairman of the Snack Bar, asked for volunteers from Gettysburg to provide the food for the Snack Bar during January, February and March.

Took 75 Baby Pictures

Mrs. Charles Weaver, chairman of the Photo-Babe project, reported that 75 pictures were taken during November. Mrs. Roy gave her report on the November meeting of the Women's Civic Council. Mrs. Smith announced that Mrs. Monroe Dellinger had been appointed chairman of the Sunshine Committee.

The auxiliary voted to supply the Christmas trees to be used in decorating the hospital again this Christmas season.

Mrs. Smith announced that the nurses at the hospital were selling Christmas corsages as a means of raising money for their Christmas party.

The following members of the DAR acted as hostesses: Mrs. James Oyler, chairman; Mrs. L. S. Long, Mrs. M. H. Pond, Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mrs. Luther Beagle and Mrs. Harold Reuning.

Miss Rutledge was introduced to the auxiliary by Mrs. Roy Gifford, chairman of the program committee.

HOLD LAYMEN'S
SERVICE SUNDAY

Laymen's Sunday was observed at the worship service in Centenary Methodist Church on Sunday morning when the address was delivered by Attorney John A. MacPhail, Gettysburg. Ralph R. Ruggles Jr. was the presiding layman and made the announcements; prayer, Charles Wulfer; Scripture, Mr. Ruggles, who introduced Attorney MacPhail, and the latter spoke on the subject "My Father's House"; vocal duet, "My God and I," Pastor and Mrs. Rodney T. Yates, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Elmer E. Furlow.

Larry Myers discussed the topic "In Everything We Give Thanks" at the meeting of the Luther League of St. John's Church on Sunday evening. The program opened with hymn singing followed with Scripture by Larry Bair, and prayer by the pastor, the Rev. William C. Kams. Roll call revealed that 35 members were in attendance. Plans were made to have a hayride for members and their guests on Friday evening, weather permitting.

The group will leave at 7 p.m. from the church and then return there for refreshments. The refreshment committee is composed of Joyce Barnes and Donna Weaver. The hayride was scheduled for last Saturday, but had to be postponed due to rain. Louise Groft was appointed to be leader for the next regular meeting on Sunday at 6 p.m. The session closed with the benediction in unison.

John H. Koons was leader for the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ United Church of Christ on Sunday evening when the program was as follows: Group hymns, "He Leadeth Me" and "Where We'll Never Grow Old"; prayer, Lewis E. Bair; Scripture, Donald Berwager; offertory piano solo, Nancy Koons; discussion of the topic, "For These — We Give Thanks," Harold E. Shoemaker; routine business in charge of the president, Donald L. Wolfe; secretary's report, Shirley Gerrick; hymn, "O Day of Rest and Gladness"; Lord's Prayer and C. E. benediction in unison. The society will meet again on Sunday at 7 p.m.

The union Thanksgiving service of Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, and St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in St. Luke's Church. The Rev. Oscar E. Feeman, pastor of the Lutheran charge, will deliver the sermon. The combined choirs will sing.

HOLIDAY FOR

Holiday hours will be observed at the Gettysburg postoffice on Thursday. It was announced today by Assistant Postmaster Arthur W. Warman. There will not be any city or rural mail deliveries and no window service but the lobby will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Special delivery matter and perishable mail will be delivered and a skeleton staff will receive and dispatch mails with 5 p.m. as closing time for the last dispatch of the day. A collection from street letter boxes will be made at 2 p.m.

Gettysburg College will close at noon Wednesday and classes will resume Monday morning at 8 o'clock. The Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary closed for Thanksgiving last Friday. Students will return to classes Monday. The Adams County Free Library will be closed on Thanksgiving Day but will reopen on Friday.

In keeping with a long-standing custom, The Gettysburg Times will not be published on Thursday.

SEIZE JAP BOAT

SEOUL (AP)—A Japanese fishing boat was seized today in the Yellow Sea for fishing inside South Korea's "Rhee Line," Coast Guard sources said.

The sources said the seized ship, the 82-ton Nishin Maru, was operating some 100 miles southwest of Korea's southwestern tip.

The semiofficial newspaper Seoul Shinmun reported South Korea is tightening "Rhee Line" patrols in anticipation of increased seasonal activity by Japanese fishermen.

4,700 SINGERS

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—Two guest conductors directed 4,700 high school singers in the 15th annual Thanksgiving Choral Festival at Oklahoma State University. The main number was "The Messiah" from the Hallelujah Chorus. Directing were Robert Wagner, Los Angeles, Calif., and John Raymond, Easton, Pa.

HONOR PRESIDENT

Charles M. Bowen, past president of the York Chapter National Association of Accountants, was presented with an honorary gavel in recognition of his service to the organization by the accountants' president, A. L. Miller, at a recent dinner meeting at the Hotel Yorktowne. Bowen is the 20th president of the organization and a member of the national board.

The association's recognition pins for 10 years of perfect attendance at the regular monthly meeting were presented to Past President Dean Barbor, William Kauffman and Associate Director of Publicity Al Harbold.

EMPLOY 21,300
HANDICAPPED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Jobs have been found for 21,300 handicapped Pennsylvanians this year, highest in the 37-year-old history of the federal government's vocational rehabilitation program, State Secretary of Labor and Industry William L. Batt Jr. said today.

Batt, in a speech prepared for a regional meeting of the Community Committee on the Handicapped, said the figure so far this year has exceeded totals in other years by as much as six times.

He said Director Mary E. Switzer of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare's Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, sent a letter to Gov. Leader stating that Pennsylvania placements of the handicapped were the highest on record in the 37-year history of the program.

Batt pointed out, however, that the state has 135,000 handicapped persons in the state and that at least 17,000 are added to the total each year.

CAUGHT IN DRAIN

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Patricia Ann Medvick, a 17-month-old blonde, spent a harrowing half hour yesterday.

Her foot became caught in a drain in the family's North Side home. Her mother Mrs. Edward Medvick tried every way she knew to solve the problem, then called police.

Patrolman Albert Schmude worked half an hour with hammer and chisel to crack the pipe before Patricia Ann was freed.

PTA REPORTS
325 MEMBERS

The New Oxford Parent-Teacher Association membership has grown to 325, it was announced Monday evening by Mrs. J. Francis Yake Jr., membership chairman, at the November meeting of the PTA at the elementary school building in New Oxford. President David Alwine presided.

Charles W. Hash, the New Oxford elementary principal, talked on the new system of grading after officers' reports had been presented by the secretary, Mrs. Joseph McWreath, and Treasurer Robert Billman. Devotions were conducted by the Rev. Dr. George E. Sheffer, pastor of the Lutheran Church at New Oxford.

On behalf of the PTA, President Alwine presented two automatic record changers to the elementary school.

John Korver, chairman of the program committee, spoke on "Why High School—The Three R's and More." He stressed the importance of reading, writing and arithmetic in the earlier grades to make high school work easier.

The next PTA meeting will be held January 27 when there will be a program on "Guiding Youth Toward Careers." After Monday's meeting, refreshments were served by the hospitality committee which included Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Rohrbach, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Phiel and Mrs. Catherine Donohue.

A guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Blaine Miller, 651 Fairview Ave., during his stay here until next June 25, when he and 150 other European Exchange students begin a three-week tour of the U.S. before going home, Borowski will also be presented with a plaque at the annual Jaycee awards dinner in January.

Magnus Flaws Jr., president of the local Jaycees, will make the formal presentation of the first place certificate and other awards on the radio program this evening. Mrs. Edward J. Baskerville, one of the teachers at Gettysburg High School who was in charge of the program, will outline the work done by the students in writing essays on "I Speak for Democracy" in the early phase of the contest. The five best essays were selected and the five finalists read their essays, making tape recordings.

Final judging was from the tape recordings themselves. The final judges were Burgess William G. Weaver, Rev. Herman G. Stuempfle Jr. and Harry Bolch, of the college English faculty.

The judges were not given the names of the speakers but heard only their voices via tape recording. Their decision was based on a 40-point scale for content, 20 points for originality and 40 points for delivery.

Robert Knechel, pastor of the host church, is a member of the school's board of directors for eight years and its chairman for seven years, a desk set with a pen and penholder was presented to him. The Rev. Mr. Knechel has resigned his local pastorate and will go to a Church of the Brethren at South Bend, Ind., soon.

116 Were Enrolled

With a total of 116 enrolled and with one session cancelled because of the grip epidemic, "Interest was at a very high level" in the school this year, leaders said. Forty churches, including 11 denominations in the county, had representatives in the school.

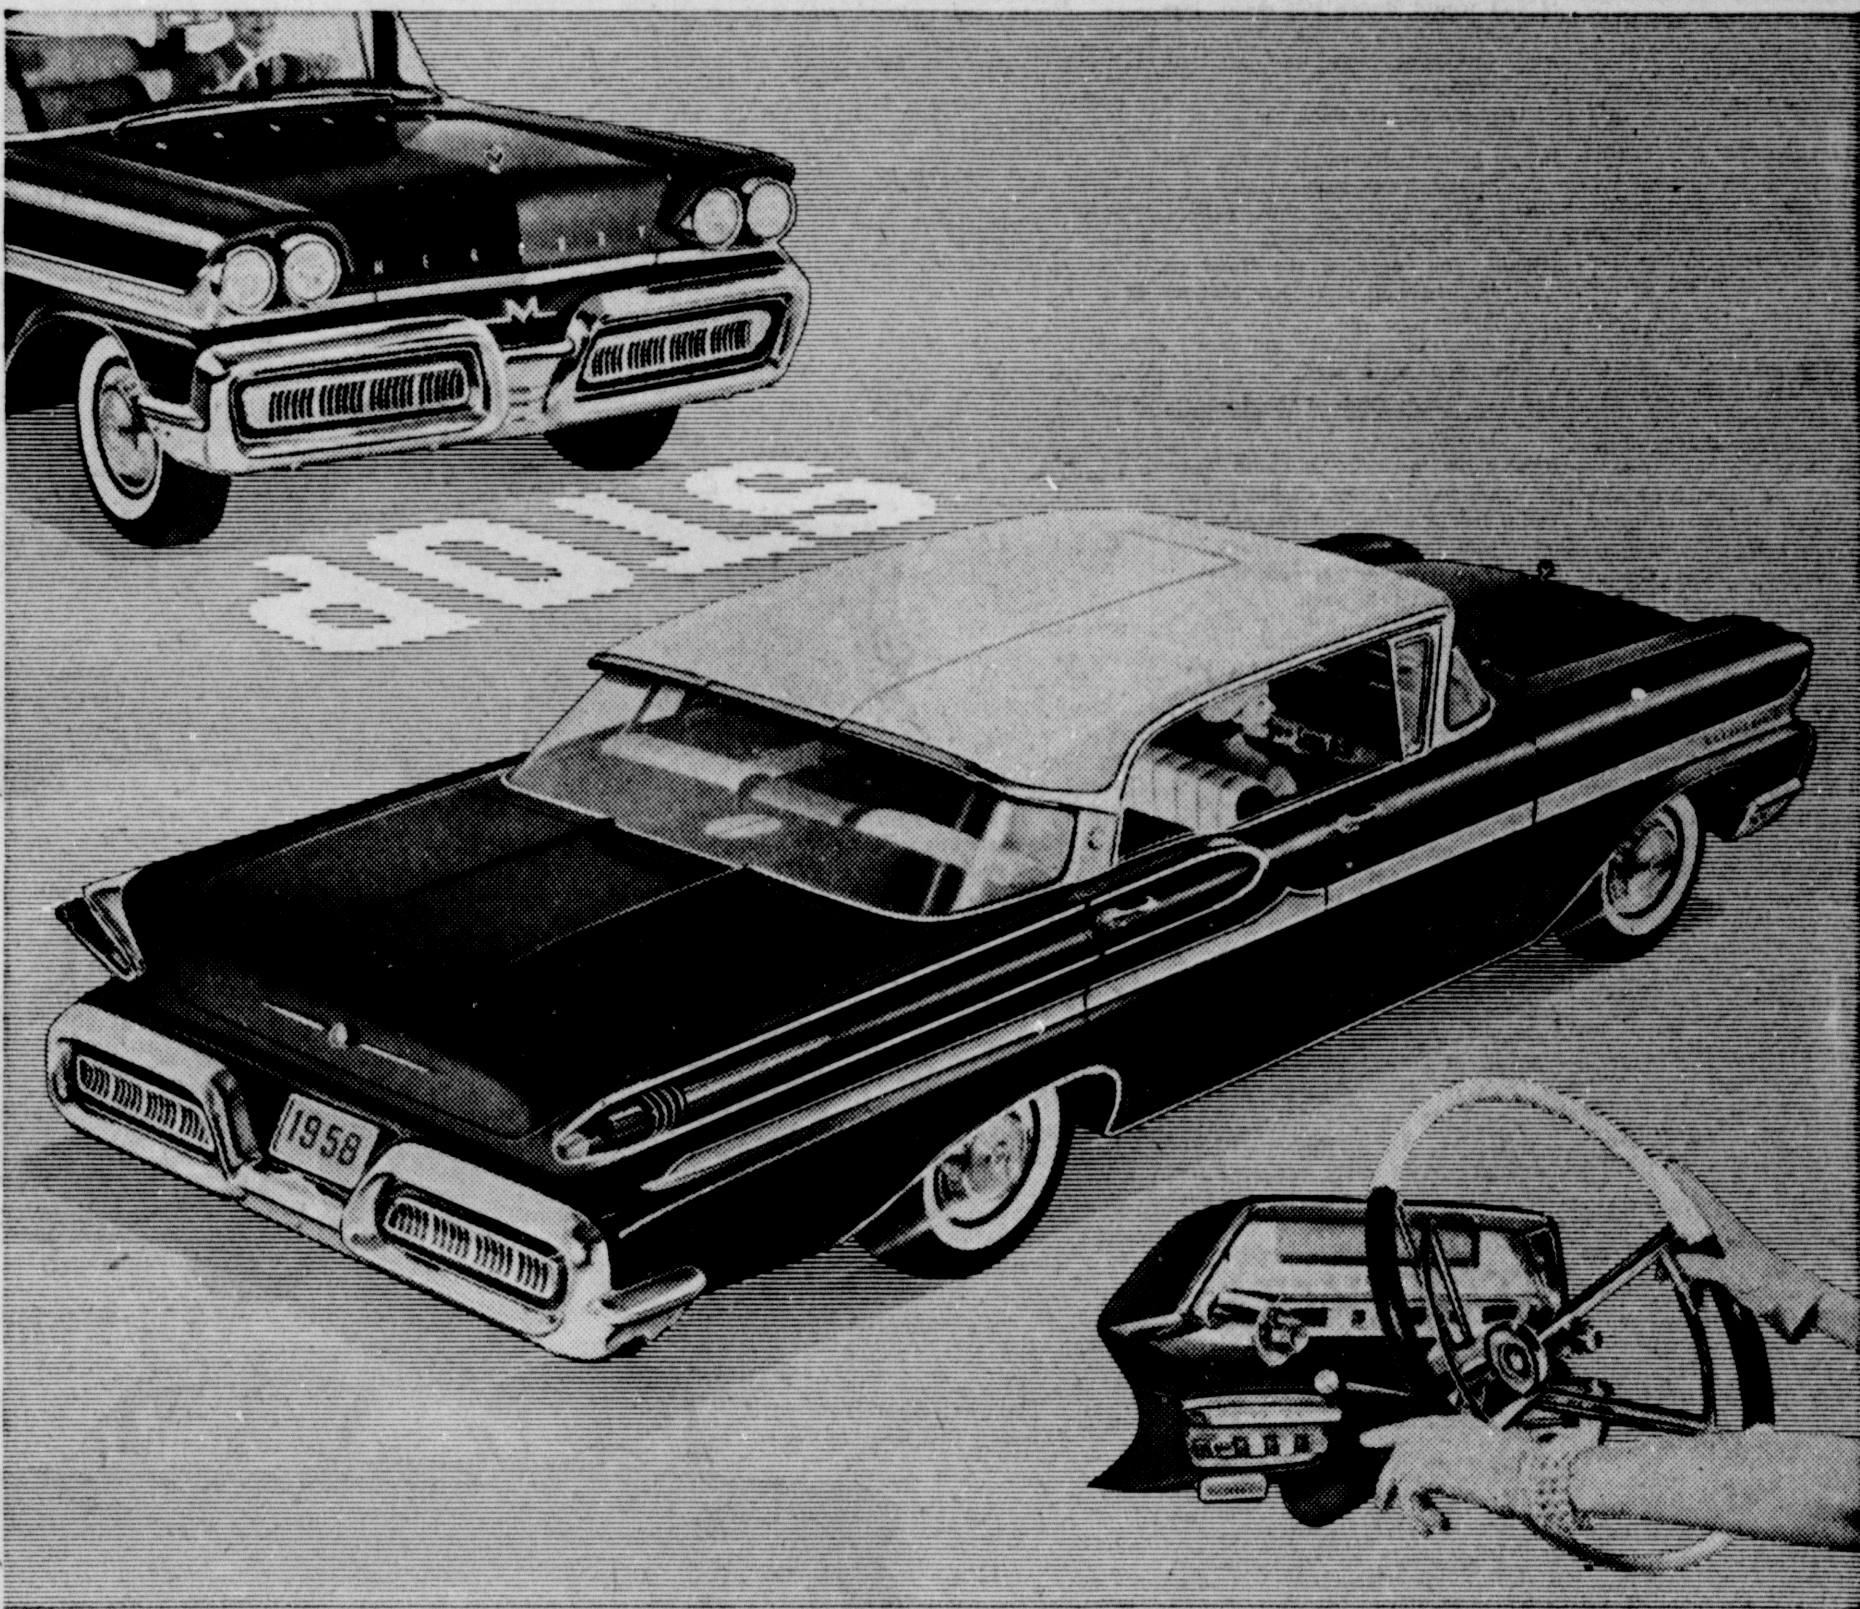

The closing talk was given by the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, Presbyterian Church pastor and member of the faculty of this year's school. The benediction and closing prayer were by the Rev. Herbert N. Brownlee, pastor of the local Baptist church.

Announcement was made that a community Christmas carol sing will be held Sunday evening, December 15, at the Church of the Brethren along the Biglerville Rd. It will be led by Prof. Rowland.

THE BIG M FOR '58—FIRST WITH SPORTS-CAR CONTROL AND THE SOLID, LUXURIOUS RIDE OF A LIMOUSINE

AND FEATURING EVERYTHING NEW FROM SELF-ADJUSTING BRAKES TO A NEW HILL CONTROL

Awaiting you at your Mercury dealer's is a car that, in many ways, makes driving a new experience. Here are four examples:

Big new brakes that adjust themselves automatically!

Mercury's new brakes are self-adjusting for the life of the brake lining. They automatically adjust for lining wear during the course of your daily driving—save time and cost of frequent brake adjustments.

A chime that warns you when you exceed the speed limit.

Mercury offers a Speed-limit Safety Monitor which can be set at any desired speed. A warning chime sounds when this speed is reached—saves having to watch the speedometer.

A power feature that automatically lubricates your car every time you start it.

Mercury offers you power lubrication. It works automatically whenever you start the engine, or push a button on the dash. And each lubrication costs less than one-half cent—cuts down on trips to the service station.

A separate push-button that gives you engine braking on down-hill grades.

All Mercurys equipped with Merc-O-Matic

Keyboard Control have a new Hill Control. Just push a button for the extra safety of engine braking. (Your brakes last longer, too.)

Equally important are Mercury's new road-hugging size and weight—and revolutionary Cool-Power Marauder engines. Teamed with Mercury's wonderful new driving aids, they result in a car that can't be matched anywhere for control, handling ease, performance and comfort.

We invite you to try Mercury's new sports-car spirit with limousine ride. Just stop in at our showroom. See how much more your money buys in a Mercury.

County Institute: The fifty-third annual session of the Adams county teachers institute is being held at Xavier Hall, Gettysburg, November 25 to 29, 1907. Prominent educators have been engaged for the day instruction. Friends of popular education are most cordially welcomed to all the sessions. The evening lectures and entertainment will be especially attractive; Wednesday evening, November 27, Lecture — recital, "Plantation Days in Song and Story," Paul M. Pearson; Thursday evening, November 28, the Commonwealth Ladies' Orchestra; Friday evening, November 29, The Scotch Singers of Glasgow. The chart for sale of Course Tickets is open at Buehler's Drug store. Course Tickets, reserved seats, $2; single tickets, reserved seats, 50 cents; general admission, 35 cents. H. Milton Roth, superintendent.

Euchre Parties: At the euchre held in the armory on the evening of the 18th inst., the first ladies' prize was won by Miss Mabel Grenoble and the second by Mrs. Jacob Mundorff. The first gentleman's prize was won by Guy Mundorff and the second by Robert Eckenrode. The "booby" prizes were won by Mrs. John Tawney and William Slonaker.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Zhea, South Washington street, was the scene of an enjoyable euchre party last Monday evening. The ladies' first prize was won by Miss Annie Wassen. The second prize was captured by Mrs. Power. The gentlemen's prize was won by Francis Miller and the Flinch prize by Miss Rose Topper.

General Local Jottings: Postmaster Wm. B. McMillan has had an addition placed over the boxes in the post office making the partition several feet higher so that an entrance from the lobby is impossible.

As a result it will be possible for the lobby to remain open hereafter until 9 o'clock which will be a great convenience to the public. Luther A. Yohe, of Hamilton Twp., teacher of Red Hill school, Oxford Twp., who has been confined to his home for some weeks with an attack of scarlet fever, has fully recovered and the school was reopened last week.

Today's Talk

ON FORGIVING

I have known many people who seemed to delight in those with whom they had disagreed or had a bitter argument. The person who forgives another takes a seat on high ground. I am reminded of a statement Stevenson once wrote. He said: "The man who cannot forgive any mortal thing is a green hand in life."

It was said about President Grover Cleveland that he was loved because of the enemies he had made. This is the American who once stated a public office was a sacred trust. If Cleveland made enemies because of his integrity we all ought to pay him tribute and honor.

I don't think any of us should have any enemies or harbor bitterness or unkind feelings toward anyone. I believe in forgiving enemies no matter what the charge. We can't hope for happiness so long as we hold a grudge toward anyone. Thinking kindly of everyone is a healthy thing that ought to become a habit.

Two brothers took a trip to Europe together. On the way back they had a quarrel and separated. One brother wrote and asked me to write something that his brother would see. "I love my brother," he said. I did as he suggested. In a short time he wrote me that all was forgiven. He and his brother were very happy again!

That old saying "To err is human but to give is divine" still remains as a great truth worth emulating. We can't expect to be happy if we have made another unhappy.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Things Missed." Protected, 1957, by The George Matthews Adams Service

ADVICE

If you would live in gentle peace at home and love your wife, if you would like to get along without domestic strife,

If you would dodge the many jars along life's double track, just let your wife say all she wants—

But don't talk back.

If you believe divorce is wrong and would have none of it, when wife expresses her beliefs, 'tis better to submit.

Should you declare the food is burned and show her glances black, she'll want to argue it's not so—

But don't talk back.

The sea of matrimony is not hard to navigate; just train yourself to hold your tongue if wife should berate. You'll live a calm and peaceful life and safe from all attack.

Divorce will never get you, if— You don't talk back.

PRINCE GEORGE, UNCLE OF KING DIES ON MONDAY

PARIS (AP)—Prince George of Greece died early Monday at his home in suburban St. Cloud. He was 88.

The second son of the late King George I of Greece, he was an uncle of the present King Paul of Greece and was linked to the royal houses of Denmark and England and the pre-Communist monarchs of Russia.

Born in Corfu, he settled in France more than half a century ago but kept the rank of vice admiral in the Greek fleet.

His wife, Princess Marie Bonaparte, and two children, Prince Pierre and Princess Eugenie, were at his bedside when he died.

He will be buried in the royal sepulcher near Marathon.

Prince George suffered a brain hemorrhage in 1956 which paralyzed both legs, and he had been bedridden for more than a year.

In his youth he was famed for his strength. This won him headlines in 1895 when he disarmed and felled a would-be assassin of his cousin Czar Nicholas II during a visit of the latter to Japan.

Two years later, after the Crete uprising against the Turks and the evacuation of Crete by the Turkish troops, Prince George was named high commissioner of the protecting powers of Greece—France, England and Russia.

He left Crete a few years later to settle in France.

His best-known hobby was gathering souvenirs of Napoleon, an ancestor of his wife. He left a valuable collection of these souvenirs.

WILL APPEAL CONVICTION OF DAVE BECK JR.

SEATTLE (AP)—Conviction of Dave Beck Jr., 37-year-old son of Teamsters Union President Dave Beck Sr., on two counts of grand larceny will be appealed and motions for a new trial will be filed, defense counsel Charles S. Burdell said Monday.

The young Beck was found guilty by a Superior Court jury of keeping for his own use $4,650 obtained from the sale of two Teamsters Union automobiles.

Beck is at liberty on $3,000 bond. His sentence could run up to as high as 15 years.

The senior Beck is scheduled to go on trial in King County Superior Court Dec. 2 on a grand larceny count of keeping $1,900 from the sale of a union-owned automobile.

Burdell said he will move to postpone that trial in view of the result of the trial of Beck Jr. on grounds that the senior Beck could not receive a fair trial at this time.

Must Spend Ten Weekends In Jail

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Sam A. McMillan, 57, of Meadville, won't have to worry about drinking on weekends for at least the next 10 weeks.

When he pleaded guilty to a drunken driving charge in Crawford County Court yesterday, he told Judge Herbert A. Mook that he drinks only on weekends. He added that it would work a financial hardship on his family if he were sent to jail.

Judge Mook solved McMillan's drinking and financial problems. The judge told McMillan he may remain free on weekends but must serve the next 10 weekends in jail from 6:30 p.m. Fridays to 6:30 a.m. Mondays.

POPE SPEAKS ON REANIMATION IN SOME CASES

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII says a doctor may halt artificial respiration and other methods of reanimation in certain cases if the patient's family desires.

He spoke on Sunday to several hundred doctors and anesthetists at an audience in Consistory Hall.

The Pope said the family might feel the attempt at reanimation "constitutes for the family a burden which in conscience they cannot accept."

This would not be euthanasia, or mercy killing, "which would never be legitimate," the Pope said.

Answering Questions

He said he was answering questions asked by Dr. Bruno Haid, chief of the anesthesia section of the surgical clinic of the University of Innsbruck, Austria.

The technique of reanimation "is not in itself immoral because the patient, if capable of personal decision, could give the doctor authorization," the Pope said. "On the other hand, since this form of treatment goes beyond ordinary methods, one cannot maintain that it would be obligatory."

"Although a cessation of circulation of the blood is caused, the ceasing of the attempt (at reanimation) is only indirectly a cause of the cessation of life."

Invalid Sacrament

Artificial respiration may be used to allow a dying patient to receive the last sacrament of the Roman Catholic Church, the Pope said, but the sacrament would be invalid if the soul had left the body.

He said if doctors are in doubt about when the soul departs the body "and if this doubt is unsolvable, the validity of the supreme unction (at such a moment) is also uncertain."

But the Pope said that "in cases of extreme necessity extreme measure may be tried" and the Church permits administration of the last sacrament if life remains in the patient.

CLASS REUNION

Rose Mary Nicholson was elected president of the Class of 1933 of Delone Catholic High School at a reunion held Saturday evening at Lincoln Logs, Lincolnway East.

Other officers elected are Delores Carbaugh, secretary-treasurer, and Doris Cover Smith, historian. The Rev. William R. Lyons, Delone principal, was a guest and spoke briefly. Plans for a class picnic next summer were discussed. There were 35 members and guests present at the reunion.

Auburn, unbeaten and untied Southeastern Conference leader, advanced to the top of the national football rankings today in the season's semifinals Associated Press poll as Michigan State fumbled away its hold on first place.

The defensively stubborn Plainsmen from Alabama, a close second a week ago, polled 1,850 points on the ballots of 227 sports writers and broadcasters, Michigan State, leader by only nine points a week ago, dropped to third after a fumbling performance against Kansas State last Saturday while Ohio State's Rose Bowl-bound Big Ten champions moved into second.

The national college football championship will be decided next week in the final Associated Press Poll. Since the Rev. Hugh O'Donnell Trophy was retired by Oklahoma last year, The Associated Press will present a new championship trophy, to be held by the team designated as champion in the final poll.

Plays Again Saturday

Only one of the three top contenders for the championship is scheduled to play this week.

Auburn, an easy 29-7 winner over Florida State Saturday, takes on its old rival Alabama in the season-ending game. All three ranking teams from the Big Ten—Ohio State, Michigan State and Iowa—completed their regular seasons last week.

Auburn has won nine straight games and allowed its opponents only four touchdowns—no more than one in any game.

How Ballots Ran

In this week's balloting, Auburn drew 85 of the 227 first-place votes and 1,850 points on the basis of 10 for each first place vote, 9 for second, etc., down to 1 for tenth.

Ohio State, loser to Texas Christian in its opening game but undefeated in Big Ten competition, finished with a rousing 31-14 victory over Michigan. This performance siphoned away some of the support that formerly had gone to Michigan State. The Spartans lost five fumbles and had to stage a last-period rally to beat Kansas State 27-9 in their last game.

Ohio State drew 65 first-place votes and 1,769 points to 41 and 1,713 for Michigan State.

Irish Replaced

Completing the first 10 were Texas A&M, Oklahoma, Iowa, Mississippi, Navy, Rice and Army. Oklahoma and Iowa moved up from sixth and eighth rankings after last Saturday's victories. Mississippi and Navy, both idle, dropped back a notch or two.

Rice, tying Texas A&M for the Southwest Conference lead, replaced Notre Dame, loser to Iowa, in the top 10 rankings.

TWO BACKS ON ALL-EAST 11

NEW YORK (AP)—Halfback Bill Austin of Rutgers and tackle Pete Williams of Lehigh today were named to the last of the weekly All-East football teams of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

Austin gained a total of 305 yards, scored two touchdowns and passed for a third in Rutgers' 26-7 victory over Columbia. Williams played another strong game for Lehigh in a 26-13 victory over Lafayette.

Dick Winterbauer, Yale senior who completed nine of 12 passes for three touchdowns in the 54-0 romp over Harvard, was this week's quarterback. Teams with Austin at halfback were Don Sachs, Emmaus, Pa., Princeton sophomore who scored three touchdowns and passed for a fourth in a 34-14 triumph over Dartmouth for the Ivy League title. The fullback was Don Nikizes, Lafayette sophomore from Nazareth, Pa., a standout on offense and defense against Lehigh.

End was Gene O'Pella, Villanova junior from Philadelphia.

Glover Takes AHL Lead On Assists

NEW YORK (AP)—Fred Glover of the Cleveland Barons has cracked the five-week monopoly of Willie Marshall of Hershey who had led all American Hockey League scoring departments, statistics released today showed.

Glover, the league's best scorer last season, took over the lead in assists with 17. Marshall has 15 and a league-leading 15 goals for 30 points, tops in the AHL. Glover scored his 600th point, highest for any active AHL player, last week. He has five goals and 17 assists for 22 points, fifth best in the league.

Marshall scored two goals last week to stay ahead of rookie Bill Sweeney of Providence in the point race. Sweeney trails with 26 points.

Hershey's Gil Mayer and Bobby Perreault continued to lead the goals, Mayer has allowed 14 goals in seven games for a 2.00 average and Perreault has allowed 28 goals in 12 games for a 2.33 average.

Further rocking the United States' already reeling Davis Cup hopes, Rye put the skids under an uninspired Seixas 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5.

It was the most ragged and uninteresting of the four quarter-final duels. Other survivors were top-seeded Ashley Cooper, Mal Anderson and Neale Fraser.

Beat Brichant

Cooper eliminated the other foreign threat when he beat Belgium's scrappy Jackie Brichant in an exciting match 6-3, 7-5, 6-4. Anderson played his best tennis since his dramatic U. S. title triumph at Forest Hills last summer when he downed young Rod Laver of Australia 6-3, 6-1, 6-3.

Fraser cut down Roy Emerson 6-3, 6-1, 6-0.

Members of the United States, Belgium and Philippine Davis Cup teams thus will be on the sidelines when the Australians play the doubles semifinals tomorrow and the singles Thursday. The singles lineup has Cooper against Anderson and Fraser against Rose.

MERVYN ROSE BEATS SEIXAS, LAST FROM U.S.

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Mervyn Rose, a temperamental left-hander with a saucer-like volleys touch, sent America's Vic Seixas to the sidelines today and turned the South Australian tennis semifinals into an all-Australian tea party.

SENATORS WILL GET TO VOTE ON WHITE'S SHIFT

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern Democratic senators were assured today of an opportunity to vote on President Eisenhower's choice of Asst. Atty. Gen. W. Wilson White to head the new Civil Rights Division in the Justice Department.

The White House announced that Eisenhower will give White a recess appointment to the new post. White, 51, now is in charge of legal counseling for the department. He told newsmen he might be sworn in for the new job next week.

Anne Wheaton, associate presidential news secretary, said White will resign from his present position and that he will be nominated formally for the new post when Congress reconvenes in January.

Angry Protest

This scotch speculation that since White already had been confirmed as an assistant attorney general, Eisenhower might shift him to the new job without sending a nomination to the Senate.

Such speculation brought an angry protest during the weekend from Sen. Thurmond (D-SC) who staged a record one-man filibuster in an unsuccessful effort to block passage of the civil rights bill in the last Senate session.

Mrs. Wheaton said both Eisenhower and White felt the appointment should be considered by the Senate because of the importance of the job.

Handled By Eastland

Nominations of this sort are handled by the Senate Judiciary Committee, headed by Sen. Eastland (D-Miss), an avowed foe of civil rights legislation.

There have been reports that White had a hand in the legal work leading up to Eisenhower's moves in the integration dispute at Little Rock, Ark. Southerners have strongly criticized Eisenhower's action in sending federal troops to Little Rock to enforce court-ordered racial integration in that city's Central High School.

Questioned by newsmen about his basic philosophy on civil rights, White told newsmen he does not go into "it would be proper to go into this at this time," adding:

"I think the Senate Judiciary Committee has the right to ask the questions and get the answers first."

White said Budget Bureau plans for the new Civil Rights Division provide for a starting force of about 60 persons, half of them lawyers.

A Philadelphian, White was named U.S. attorney for eastern Pennsylvania in August 1953 and became an assistant attorney general last March.

BOOSTERS CLUB ELECTS; MAPS MORE ACTIVITY

Officers were re-elected, a financial report was heard, and plans discussed for future activity at a meeting of the directors of the Gettysburg High School Boosters Club Monday evening in the offices of the Adams Electric Co-operative.

John Stahl, who presided at the meeting, was re-elected president; Charles Smith, vice president, and Robert Smith, secretary-treasurer.

Ben Jones, head football coach, attended the meeting and reported that during the past season 19 squad members residing in rural areas were transported a total of 3,104 miles by two drivers. The drivers were paid a total of $137 by the club.

During the coming basketball, track and baseball seasons the club will continue to pay drivers for athletes requiring transportation following practices and games.

Will Change Sign Board

A letter of appreciation from Coach Jones for the work done during the football season by the club was read.

It was decided to have the football sign at the school repainted and the 1958 schedule placed upon it in the near future.

The treasurer's report revealed that a total of $418.45 in bills have been paid, leaving a balance of $469.66 as of Monday.

Approval was given to assist in the securing of a whirl-pool bath for school athletes. Additional help in purchasing the machine is now being sought.

LEGAL BLOCK IS THROWN ON GRID TILT THURSDAY

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. (AP)—A circuit judge has thrown a legal block on state athletic officials' plans for a Thanksgiving Day championship football game.

Judge F. Morton Wagner issued an injunction yesterday restraining the West Virginia Secondary School Activities Commission from matching Fairmount West and Weirton in the scheduled Class AA title game Thursday.

Two young football players from Big Creek High School in the town of War petitioned for the injunction. The players, Robert G. Holbrook and Roy Bellamy, claimed their team lost out on a title game because of a "conspiracy" involving W. R. Fugitt, executive secretary of the activities commission.

The players, represented by President Homer Hickman of the Big Creek Athletic Commission, said Fugitt conspired with John C. Greer, principal of Weirton High School, to exclude Big Creek from the title game.

The basis of the complaint is the classification of Martins Ferry High School, about 200 miles north of here in Ohio.

The Big Creek petition maintains that Martins Ferry, an opponent of Weirton, has had only 247 male students both this year and during the 1956-57 school year, and thus falls three shy of the 250 male student requirement for a Class AA school in West Virginia.

Had Martins Ferry been reclassified, Weirton would not have played enough Class AA teams to qualify for the title game, and Big Creek would have gotten the nod to meet Fairmount West on Thanksgiving Day, the petition says.

WARRIORS PICK ALL-FOE TEAM; SEASON "BESTS"

Gettysburg High School football players recently selected an all-opponent team for the past season as well as naming several "bests" for the campaign.

They chose the Mechanicsburg game, won 20-19, as their best played; Kenny Keefe's 103-yard TD run after recovering a fumble in the Westminster game as the best play; Gary Fike, Mechanicsburg, the best back of the opponents; Darwin Wiles, Middletown, the best lineman, and Westminster as the best team.

The all-opponent team follows:

Ends — Dave Rodman, Hanover; Jay Meyer, Westminster; tackles — Rick Cury, Waynesboro, and Wiles; guards — Malcolm Meisler, Middletown; William Roeper, Westminster; center — Donald Coy, Shippenburg; backs — Darryl Stoops, Chambersburg; halfbacks, Ed Shilling, Westminster; Gary Fike, Mechanicsburg; fullback, Charley Marks, Carlisle. All are seniors.

Chuck Bednarik Has Rib Separation

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles veteran linebacker, Chuck Bednarik, has been sidelined temporarily with a rib separation suffered in the Washington Redskins game here Sunday.

Bednarik will not be available for the Eagles contest with the Pittsburgh Steelers next Sunday.

Eagle Coach Hugh Devore said he would use Bill Koman in the linebacker's spot.

Team physician Dr. Thomas Dowd announced yesterday that he had ordered X-rays of a bruise on Koman's right arm and a bruised finger on the right hand of Eagle end Bobby Walston. He said he expected both would be available for the Steelers game.

OLD RIVALS TO DECIDE BOWL BID THURSDAY

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—They'll be playing for more than tradition here Thursday when Virginia Tech meets Virginia Military Institute in football's "Military Classic of the South."

This 53rd meeting between Virginia's two old rivals was supposed to be the clincher for Tech's fourth consecutive state title and perhaps the game that would give the Techmen a chance to replace West Virginia as Southern Conference champ.

Instead, it's the big game for VMI—its bid for the Keydets' first unbeaten season since 1920, the conference championship and a bowl bid riding on the outcome.

Narrowed To Two

VMI, the state title already in the bag, has suffered nothing worse than a 21-21 tie with Holy Cross through nine games this season. An impressive victory over Tech could push the Keydets into the Tangerine Bowl opposite Mississippi Southern at Orlando, Fla., New Year's Day.

The bowl committee announced last night that it had narrowed its list of candidates down to VMI, ranked 17th in today's Associated Press poll, and East Texas State.

A victory would give VMI its first Southern Conference title. The Keydets are 5-0 in league play while West Virginia, the kingpin for four consecutive years, is 3-0.

Angels May Go To Spokane

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League may be playing in Spokane next season if the local governmental "angel" can be found with $200,000 or more to fix up the baseball park here.

Mayor Willard Taft and a six-man committee started looking today for some way to get the money after Dick Welsh, president of the Los Angeles club, indicated the Angels were ready to move here.

The committee agreed at the outset the cash would have to come from the city, the county or a combination of both, that "private enterprise" could do it.

Spokane, with a Brooklyn tieup, drew a record Class B league attendance of 37,000 in 1947, but the ball park burned down the next year and reconstruction was slow and costly on a community-owned basis. The Spokane Indians in the Class B Northwest League folded up last year and the city had no professional baseball in 1957.

Kentucky Retires Michaels Number 79

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The University of Kentucky last night retired football jersey No. 79 that had been worn by tackle Lou Michaels of Swoyersville, Pa.

It was the second football number to be retired by the school. Coach Blanton Collier made the announcement at an alumni banquet for the varsity and freshmen football squads.

Michaels helped upset Tennessee 20-6 Saturday to end a brilliant three years of play at Kentucky. The 230-pound tackle recovered two fumbles, one for a touchdown, in Saturday's game. He averaged 4.1 yards on 10 punts.

Only other Kentucky player to have his number retired was Babe Parilli (No. 10) in 1953.

HANDICAPPED COLT BACK IS TOP CATCHER

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams will do well to watch out for a guy who is nearsighted, has a trick back and one leg shorter than the other when they play the Baltimore Colts in Memorial Stadium Sunday.

Raymond—he doesn't like to be called Ray—Berry is one of the National League's leading pass catchers despite his physical handicaps. Most important of all to the Colts he fields the hard ones—leaping high, falling down or tumbling over a defender.

Won Game Sunday

Coach Frankie Albert of the San Francisco 49ers saw him make an "almost unbelievable catch and that was the ball game as far as I was concerned," he said after the Colts won Sunday.

The Colts were trailing 21-20 with two minutes to play and on their own 45 with third down and 14 to go when Berry caught a 31-yard pass amidst three defenders. The Colts traveled the rest of the way to score and win the game 27-21.

Berry's biggest day this season was Nov. 10 at Washington where he caught a dozen passes for 224 yards and two touchdowns. He has caught a total of 31 this season, five over the goal.

Most of the time he wears contact lenses to see the ball coming. He has a harness to keep his trick back in place and mud cleats on one shoe to compensate for a short leg.

MITEFF KO'S GAGLIARDO IN THIRD ROUND

NEW YORK (AP)—"D-Day" can't come soon enough for Alex Miteff. In the case of the strapping Argentine heavyweight, the "D" means DeJohn, first name Mike.

There was talk today of a return fight between Miteff and DeJohn for Miami in February following Alex's third round technical knockout of pudgy ring-rusty Tony Gagliardo at St. Nicholas Arena last night.

DeJohn is the tall Syracuse, N. Y., heavyweight who handed Alex his only pro defeat by knocking him out in 77 seconds at Syracuse last Oct. 9.

2nd Straight

The 6-2 Argentine may get his return with Big Mike providing he gets by his next two opponents, possibly Crowe Peele of Baton Rouge at St. Nicholas Dec. 9 and hulking Nino Valdes in Denver, Jan. 7.

Miteff's TKO of Gagliardo, a one-day sub for injured Lennie Kanthal of Washington, was his second straight since he was belted out by DeJohn. The 22-year-old South American's record now is 14-1, including nine kayos.

Sideline since last February and admittedly out of shape, the 21-year-old, 166½-pound Gagliardo was no match for the well conditioned Miteff, who weighed 203½.

SEN. H. A. SMITH RETIRES FROM SENATE IN '59

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said today he will retire from the Senate when his term expires in January 1959.

The veteran senator timed his announcement to coincide with a meeting of New Jersey Republican leaders, gathered to assess their prospects in the wake of the overwhelming re-election earlier this month of Democratic Gov. Robert Meyner.

Smith's withdrawal appeared likely to add fuel to an already hot race for the GOP nomination to succeed him. Former presidential aide Bernard Shanley and Rep. Robert W. Kean announced earlier this month that they would seek Smith's seat.

There had been speculation earlier that the 77-year-old Smith would withdraw, both because of the prospect of a battle for nomination and because of the ill health of his wife.

Decides To Retire

Smith said in a statement that he had talked with his wife about whether he should extend his 14 years of Senate service. "We have finally come to the conclusion that I should not do so," he said.

"It is time now to be clear and definite as to my own position so that we can proceed together to find the strongest congressional ticket this fall," the statement said.

"It is my own belief that a statesmanlike primary without animosities or bitterness will help to develop a wise leadership. I shall devote my own efforts to these ends."

United America

"The greatest contribution our New Jersey Republicans can make is to point the way to united party action in our state, and to point the way in the nation to a united America at this time of critical tension."

"I have reached the conclusion that I can most effectively contribute to these principles by retiring from the Senate at the end of my present term."

Shanley announced Nov. 7 he would seek Smith's seat "no matter who is going to oppose me."

The Essex County Republican Committee approved a resolution last night endorsing Kean's candidacy. Kean announced two weeks ago he would seek the nomination.

Morris Is Interested

Robert Morris, counsel for the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, has said he is "interested" in making the race. State Sen. Walter H. Jones of Norwood also has been mentioned frequently as a possible nominee.</

FIREMAN IS FATALLY HURT

Injuries suffered shortly before noon Sunday while he was riding as a volunteer fireman on the Frederick Citizens' fire truck are believed to have caused the death of Walter Kable (Joe) Shank, 57, Frederick.

Shank was crushed between the hook and ladders' turntable and tractor sections — the folding section for the long aerial ladder apparatus — when it moved out of the Citizens fire station to respond to an alarm.

Shank had been a volunteer member of the Citizens Truck Company for more than 10 years. He was also widely known through his job as a meat cutter at the Frederick A and P store, where he worked for more than 20 years.

Born in Woodsboro, he was a son of the late Charles B. and Sarah Catherine Aumen Shank. His wife, Mrs. Evelyn Collins Shank, survives. Also surviving are the following:

"Some people buy stocks as an investment. They want the dividends on a regular basis. They may be estates, or widows, or persons planning a regular investment program. They buy the stocks which over the years have proven the most steady payers of dividends and which give promise that in the future they will follow the same steady course.

"Some people invest part of their excess income as a hedge against inflation. Our national history has shown over the long haul an inflationary course. Thus the person who had $1,000 30 years ago and simply held on to it, would not be able to buy as much today for his $1,000 as he could at the time he laid it away. Thus many persons put part of their savings in good stocks so that, as the stocks increase in value due to inflation, their savings increase too.

cost per unit of production. This means labor-saving devices must be employed to cut the cost per unit of production. It also means a change in the size of farms. Labor-saving devices are manufactured for a given size of business, and production must thus be fitted to the machine and not vice versa.

"Specialization to lower costs per unit has led to the growth of industries such as the manufactured seed business. Last year nearly 30 percent of all feed used exclusive of roughage and pasture was manufactured prepared feed. The 35.7 million tons sold over an increase of 10 million tons over 1946. Today more than 50,000 persons are engaged in the feed business."

of hay and 108 acres of pasture.

This year the program included 160 acres of corn, 30 acres of soybeans and sorghum, 60 acres of barley, 80 acres of wheat, 10 acres of winter oats, 25 acres of rye which was green fed, 96 acres of alfalfa, 100 acres clover and grass mixture and 82 acres of pasture.

In 1949 his livestock included 62 hogs, 950 laying hens, 25 milk cows and young stock and 74 steers. This year the program includes 96 milk cows, 33 dairy heifers, 39 beef heifers, 129 steers, nine sows, 111 hogs to fatten and 1,200 hens.

Uses Modern Methods
Drainage problems at the farms operated by Waybright with his father and brother have been overcome, Waybright reported.

With the aid of the county soil conservation district, the Waybrights used bedding and surface ditches. "Some of the crop land is conducive to sheet erosion as well as gully erosion, on this land we farm in strips on the contour."

Soil samples to determine needs of the soil led to changes in fertilization and rotation and "the fields have taken on a much more productive appearance and we have been able to expand our livestock program." Production of hay has grown from 1½ tons per acre to three tons, corn from 45 bushels to 70 bushels per acre, corn silage from 6½ tons to 10 tons per acre, barley from 28 bushels per acre to 48 and wheat from 20 to 30 bushels per acre as a result of the improved fertilization and other practices.

Many Activities
Waybright's report to the judges shows he and his father and brother have added many improvements and much machinery. Among the improvements are a milking parlor, pipe line milker, cold wall 330-gallon tank, remodeling of farm buildings and construction of others.

Waybright has been a member of the executive committee of the Grange, helped organize the Gettysburg Young Farmers Association and was its first president, has been a Sunday School teacher at St. James Lutheran Church for the last nine years, headed the hospital building fund and Community Chest drives in his area, received the Keystone and American Farmer degrees, served as national vice president of the Future Farmers of America, is a member of the livestock committee of the county extension service and served as treasurer of the Senior Extension Club.

Greatest Satisfaction
In the form filled out for the contest, Waybright notes that "the greatest satisfaction has been caring for the soil so that it will furnish an abundant life for the farm." He notes that best example of what he means was the taking over of two farms "which were run down and considered to be unprofitable to farm any longer. By applying fertilizer and lime the farms are now in a productive state of fertility."

He added: "We remodeled three houses, one in which Horace lives, a house where one of the helpers lives and the one where I live. We built a cement block farm shop which had been quite helpful in repairing and building equipment. Another improvement was a feed mixing room including a hammermill, 1½-ton mixer, overhead grain storage bins and six-inch auger which delivers feed from the mixer to the milking parlor."

Cancel King's Conference
The illness forced Eisenhower to cancel his plans to attend last night's dinner for King Mohammed V. and a conference with the King today. Secretary of State Dulles sat in for him today.

Mrs. Wheaton made no comment when a reporter suggested that her terse announcements were "a very unusual treatment of a presidential illness." The newsman recalled more detailed announcements were made when the President suffered his heart attack and the later intestinal disorder.

In her first report of the day Mrs. Wheaton said Eisenhower was resting comfortably and ate a good breakfast.

That report said:

James C. Hagerly, press secretary, left Paris for Washington early today, skipping a scheduled final conference with Gen. Lauris Norstad, NATO commander. He had told newsmen late last night he planned to stick by ear-

and much machinery. Among the improvements are a milking parlor, pipe line milker, cold wall 330-gallon tank, remodeling of farm buildings and construction of others.

Cancel King's Conference
The illness forced Eisenhower to cancel his plans to attend last night's dinner for King Mohammed V. and a conference with the King today. Secretary of State Dulles sat in for him today.

Mrs. Wheaton made no comment when a reporter suggested that her terse announcements were "a very unusual treatment of a presidential illness." The newsman recalled more detailed announcements were made when the President suffered his heart attack and the later intestinal disorder.

In her first report of the day Mrs. Wheaton said Eisenhower was resting comfortably and ate a good breakfast.

That report said:

James C. Hagerly, press secretary, left Paris for Washington early today, skipping a scheduled final conference with Gen. Lauris Norstad, NATO commander. He had told newsmen late last night he planned to stick by ear-the first" saying Eisenhower was "progressing very well" and the later one saying he was "progressing satisfactorily."

Mrs. Wheaton declined to go beyond the second statement.

Concern Over Condition
"That is all I have to say at this time," she said.

Concern over Eisenhower's condition was heightened by his 1955 heart attack and last year's operation for ileitis.

Asked why it is necessary to make a further evaluation of a chill, Mrs. Wheaton said "I can't discuss that."

She also said she did not know if there was any indication the President's illness amounted to more than a chill.

She would not say who drew up the statement beyond saying it was the work of "two or three people."

No Talk Tonight

Likewise Mrs. Wheaton declined to say whether any doctors besides the two who ordinarily attend the President have been called in. Eisenhower's doctors are Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder and Lt. Col. Walter Tkach.

Mrs. Wheaton said no thought was being given to the President's delivering from the White House tonight the speech on international cooperation which he originally planned to deliver at Cleveland tonight.

"There is nothing along that line at all," she said.

The Cleveland speech was canceled last night after the President became ill. So were all of today's appointments.

he was knocked unconscious for "a minute or a minute and a half."

He recovered consciousness to find himself lying along the road, his pocketbook beside him, and the car starting to drive away. When he opened the pocketbook he found $10, all the money he had, had been removed.

Admit Taking $5
Barrett, denying that they had "picked up this character," said the sailor they picked up at the time was in New Oxford, that they "didn't stop near the three lane," but stopped instead on the Centennial Rd. (turning onto it from the Lincoln Highway) about 100 yards from the Lincoln Highway, and that "the sailor started to run away and we chased after him and he threw his pocketbook down" and told them to take his money, and that they took $5 from the pocketbook—all the money that was in it.

He said he was sure the sailor was not Hoffman because the one they picked up had been at New Oxford and not Cross Keys, because he was "bigger than this one" and because he had only $5.

Under questioning Barrett's testimony changed slightly and later her plans for a departure later in the day, although he said then that his business in Paris was "practically finished."

He admitted hearing a thud behind him, as if someone had hit him, and then the sailor ran away. Later when a state policeman asked him about a large rasp and tire changing tool, Barrett admitted they had been found in his car, and the questioning ended.

He said that after taking the money from the sailor the three went to a diner in Hanover and bought "steak diners."

He admitted the three drank "six or seven" bottles of beer while in his car. At one point, one of the youths asked Hoffman a question which he replied, "All three of you were too looped to know."

Says Bomber Forces Must Be Maintained Until Ballistic Missile Weapons Perfected

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Nathan F. Twining told NATO scientists today that the safety of the free world depends on the maintenance of manned bomber forces until ballistic missile weapons can be perfected.

"The problem of maintaining technological superiority" in the face of recent Russian technical advances, the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff said, is one "for the entire community of free nations."

Twining said development of intermediate and intercontinental missiles is proceeding under "the highest national priority," but he added: "Meanwhile... we cannot discard systems of known capability for those not yet in operational readiness. In effect we must travel two roads simultaneously."

Play Vital Roles

Twining made the remarks in an address prepared for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Advisory Group for Aeronautical Research and Development.

Perfection of 1,500-mile range IRBMs and 5,000-mile ICBMs, he continued, "will provide a tremendously improved deterrent instrument for achieving the objective of the free world—a true and lasting peace."

To achieve this, Twining said, "the NATO governments represented here today must play a vital role in a cooperative research effort. It will be necessary to pool our scientific talents and to work together toward a common goal."

Gravest Challenge

The gravest challenge to the free world lies "in the area of future developments," Twining said. "The Soviet achievements indicate an all-out concentration on science and technology resulting in a current rate of growth exceeding that of our own. So, in a relative sense, our margin of technical advantage is being steadily reduced.

"This challenge must and will be met successfully. If war is thrust upon us, we will have to win it with the weapons in hand. Time will no longer be available to marshal our resources."

President Eisenhower said in a message read by Twining the organization's work "becomes more important in each passing year to the safeguarding of peace and security."

"Moreover, it serves as a model for others in practical and productive co-operation for the benefit of the whole NATO community," he said.

Donald Quarles, deputy secretary of defense, said the advisory group has done very important work in developing NATO's light fighter project—a program for perfecting an inexpensive light fighter plane of limited performance.

Need Cooperation

Quarles said recent events demonstrate the importance of coordination if the free world is to maintain leadership in science and in application of science to man's welfare.

He added there must be a re-examination of security requirements for a proper balance between free exchange of information and the safeguarding of vital secrets.

Eisenhower has said he will ask Congress to amend the Atomic Energy Act to allow greater exchange of information with the Allies. But some members, expressing doubts about security in some allied countries, have said the present law, if used fully, would permit adequate exchanges.

Lt. Gen. J. M. Platte of the French army, chairman of the NATO standing group which directs the advisory group, said that recent events make it imperative that the free nations unite their efforts toward greater co-operation in the use and exploitation "of our combined scientific potential."

Free Exchange Of Ideas

"The success of the Western world is irrevocably linked to the free exchange of ideas," Platte said.

Lt. Gen. Donald L. Putt, deputy chief of staff of the U. S. Air Force for development, told the group civilization is in an era of development of both manned and unmanned weapons which will operate in space.

"We are developing many weapons of specialized application," Putt said.

"We should regard none of them as ultimate.

"To do so would be to blind us

CHECK GRAVES PLUNDERED BY WOMAN SLAYER

PLAINFIELD, Wis. (AP)—Township officials today pondered the problems of today graves to excavate to check the story of Edward Gein, who admits killing two women and plundering the graves of nine others.

No date has been set for the exhumations.

Dist. Atty. Earl Kileen of Waushara County said Plainfield Township officials were working on the selection of two graves from the list of eight provided by Gein.

The 51-year-old bachelor is in the Central State Hospital for the Criminally Insane at Waupun.

30-Day Observation

He will undergo 30 days of mental observation to determine whether he is competent to stand trial for first-degree murder. He is charged in the death of Mrs. Bernice Worden, 58-year-old widow whose mutilated body was found hanging in a shed at Gein's secluded farm Nov. 16.

The frail-looking, 140-pound handyman admits he killed and mutilated Mrs. Worden and Mrs. Mary Hogan, a Portage County tavernkeeper who disappeared Dec. 9, 1954.

Mrs. Worden's body and the heads of 10 other women were found in Gein's two-story frame house. One head has been identified tentatively by Portage County Sheriff Herbert Wanserski as that of Mrs. Hogan.

Stole Nine Heads

Gein insists he stole the other nine heads from the Plainfield Cemetery and the Spiritland Cemetery, located in the town of Almond in Portage County.

Dist. Atty. John J. Haka of Portage County indicated he has no plans to excavate any of the Spiritland graves named by Gein.

Wanserski has declared he believes Gein never robbed a grave in his life.

The officials' problem is the selection of one grave to open along with that of Mrs. Eleanor Adams, 51, who was buried in a plot adjacent to that of Gein's mother, who died Dec. 29, 1945.

Kileen has said the first grave to be opened would be that of Mrs. Adams, the only person identified among the nine women whose graves Gein claimed he violated.

to present military realities, and to future military hostilities."

Putt said it would be unwise to eliminate large classes of tried and proven weapon systems which still have great importance in warfare.

Putt said that one of the major elements of NATO strength is the great pool of scientific talent within the alliance.

"It now appears that this principle of rapid dissemination of knowledge and the joint use of facilities for mutual support of progress will be extended to other fields of science, to the further strengthening of the free nations of the world," he said.

Before the Spanish introduced the horse to them, Indians on the western plains had only two domesticated animals—the turkey and the dog.

The town of Clayton, New Mexico, (pop. 3,800) owns a municipal buffalo herd. It attracts tourists.

Scientist Says Sex Changing; Will Live With Wife As Sister

ROSYTHE, Scotland (AP)—A 40-year-old scientist who heads a naval electronics research team says his sex is changing but he will keep his job and live with his wife "as a sister."

Wearing women's clothes, Frank Little said at a news conference that he will dress as a man while at work to meet official requirements, but will live the rest of his life as a woman.

As he told his story his wife sat at his side. They said their children know of Little's change and that the family will remain together.

The Littles have two sons 18 and 16 and a daughter 8.

R. H. Richards, superintendent of the admiralty research establishment, also was present. He said he had asked Little to make a statement to bring the matter into the open.

Wore Woman's Clothes

"Mr. Little is a brilliant scientist and I have every confidence in his capabilities," Richards said. "At present he is sitting on the fence of nature, but as far as I am concerned he will continue to work at the establishment—dressed as a man, of course."

Little, chief of a research team at a big naval base here, was dressed for the news conference in a green coat, red high heel shoes and nylon stockings. He wore makeup and costume jewelry and carried a red handbag.

"My biological and psychological systems began to change," he said, "and about 10 months ago I began to go out with my wife dressed as a woman. I became terribly unhappy as a man and just normal as a woman."

Doctors Watch Change

He said doctors are watching his change. "At the present moment I am still physically a man, and it may be two years before I know which course nature will take," he added. "At the present moment I have every desire to be a woman. I even object to being called Mr. Little."

Mrs. Little told the reporters: "There will of course be some cruel people who will cause our children a great deal of anguish, but we have to decide for the best."

Better For Children

She said she had undergone great strain "watching my husband, despite himself, becoming more and more a woman every week."

She added: "My husband and I think there will be more benefits for the children if the home is not broken. I have now learned to accept it, and I now feel toward my husband as a sister, and I believe we can still keep our home a happy place for all of us."

3 BIG PROBLEMS AWAIT VISIT BY HAMMARSKJOLD

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Diplomats said today U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold has a good chance of easing border tensions on his visit to the Middle East and may tackle two other big problems: Palestine refugees and charges that Turkey threatens to invade Syria.

He announced last night he will leave Friday for Jordan and will go to other countries in the area if his one-week schedule permits.

U. N. officials indicated that visits to Damascus, Cairo and Jerusalem may follow the trip to Amman, Syria, Egypt, Israel and Jordan all have been involved in recent flareups threatening a new crisis.

Hammarskjold's decision to go to the Middle East apparently was spurred by Jordan's rejection of U. S. Marine Col. Byron Leary as a U. N. mediation officer. Jordan said Sunday it considered Leary biased for Israel and would no longer accept his recommendations. New exchanges of gunfire on Israel's borders with Jordan and Syria also appear to have played a part in the decision.

Shooting was reported on the Syrian-Israeli border yesterday. Israel charged that Syrian troops fired on settlers and on a car near the Israeli village of Dan, close to the area where an Israeli field worker was reported killed Sunday.

Another version came from Damascus. A Syrian military spokesman said a five-man Israeli unit entered the demilitarized zone and fired on Arab shepherds near Daret el Maghaweer. The spokesman said the Israelis withdrew to Dan, but he mentioned no gunfire there.

FACT #1

Canada Dry, the original Pale Dry Ginger Ale, is known the world over as "The Champagne of Ginger Ales."

REASON: It's so light, so dry... less sweet than all other ginger ales. Its tiny bubbles, thanks to Exclusive "Pin-Point Carbonation", keep this bright beverage sparkling to the last sip. Hold it up to the light... look at how good it tastes. Then sip it... you'll see why Canada Dry is truly "The Champagne of Ginger Ales." Comes in handy carton and big family size bottles. Try it... you'll love it!

*PROOF: Developed and first bottled at the turn of the century by Master Chemist Dr. J. J. McLaughlin in Toronto, Canada.

What Excuses Do You Concoct When You Are Late For Dinner?

By SAUL PETT

NEW YORK (AP)—Among the little things in life that try a man's soul is finding the courage of a sudden conviction or, more precisely, an explanation for his wife. For example, it is 6:16 p.m., and our hero is out of the office but still downtown enjoying some spontaneous, unplanned relaxation. He has just had two drinks with the boys and the problem now is, not whether he will have more (because he will) but how to tell his wife.

He moves to the phone uncertainly because of a wavering sense of guilt. Against that guilt, the mouse tries to walk like a man, tries to stiffen his backbone with the solid—or almost solid—conviction that, darn it, he's got a night out coming to him.

"Courage To Linger"

Still, how does he tell her? How does he break the lyric news that between the two biggest pressure groups in his life—his office and his home—he has discovered a wonderful world of limbo, in which nothing is demanded of him except the courage to linger?

Can he tell the simple truth? He cannot. Not at 6:16 p.m., when in his mind's eye he can see the roast in the oven, the gravy spilling over the pan, the kids fighting over the TV set and his wife desperate for a male bugler to blow taps in the snake pit.

So, what does he tell her? What do you? The answers, we find after a comprehensive survey, vary with profession and personality. Here are some:

Business Conference?

The paranoid career man—"Isn't tinseltown, sweetie? Eight hours a day, five days a week, the boss doesn't even say hello to me. And now, tonight, he wants to have a conference over a couple of drinks..."

The self-diagnosed leper, who is saving humanity from infection—"Look, doll, the whole day has been one long ulcer. I'm in a lousy mood, horrible, just horrible. No need for you and the kids to see me this way. I think I'll stay downtown awhile and..."

The exclamation-mark explainer—"You'll never guess who dropped into town! Talk about a small world! Talk about coincidence! Remember the one-armed life guard up at the lake who was so nice to the kids? Well, he's in town! The least I can do is buy him a couple of..."

"We Did It Again"

The salesman on the verge of armageddon—"Well, honey, we did it again! The commission should run into four figures. It's all sewed up—just about. Few more drinks and I'll have old J. M. in the bag." The Madison Avenue man (early in his career)—"Of course, I sound panicky, darling. The roof's caving in. The whole campaign's up in smoke and we got to start tunneling (creating) again tonight..."

The Madison Avenue man (later in his career)—"Yes, I must stick around and have a few. This is excuse No. 429. You can look it up..."

"Cold Calculator"

The timid bookkeeper, or cold calculator—"Love, what kind of a day did you have? ... (10 minutes later). How awful. You must be exhausted. Why don't you just have a bowl of soup and go to bed now. No, don't worry about my dinner. I'll pick up something in town..."

The reverse psychologist—"Look Ethel, you're simply going to have to do something about our three-party line. I've been trying to get your for an hour, before you fixed dinner, because I'm staying..."

The double-reverse psychologist (the sneak)—"You can't know how I envy you. I'll bet you were just putting little Tommy into his crib. I'll bet he was making that funny little noise again. How I wish I could be there! Kiss that freckled nose for me, darling. I won't be able to..."

The friend of man (the sneakiest sneak)—"Lord, I wish people wouldn't pile their troubles on me. Yeah, it's Charley and Jane again. Seems serious this time—Charley even used the word divorce. Insists I meet him tonight for couple of drinks. Thank goodness, darling you and I have a better understanding..."

MILK DEALERS CONFERRING ON HIGHER PRICES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Milk dealers and producers came here from western Pennsylvania today to hear what the State Milk Control Commission intends doing about price increases they requested last month.

The commission said in advance of three separate meetings with the dealers from the Pittsburgh, Erie and Altoona-Johnstown areas that price increases ranging from 1/2 to 3/4 cents a quart have been proposed.

"We have been devoting many hours to the study of evidence for the proposed increases gathered at hearings last October," said Commissioner John A. Smith.

Prior to the meetings, Smith said: "We have no evidence for a price decrease that I can see from the transcript of evidence."

Any new price orders given by the commission will go into effect in mid-December.

Smith said the farmers and dealers have cited increased costs in asking for price boosts.

He said the farmers testified at the hearings that brought damage last summer requires that they receive more money for their product to offset increased costs.

The dealers, he said, asked for boosts because of increased wages paid their plant workers and drivers and other fringe benefits which have become more costly in the last year.

If the farmer or dealer is dissatisfied with any new price order, Smith said, he may file an appeal against it within 20 days stating his objections and presenting concrete reasons.

"If we find the reasons are valid, the order could be revised," Smith said.

Quits TV Show With $47,500 Winnings

NEW YORK (AP)—David Mayer has quit the NBC-TV "Twenty One" quiz with winnings of $47,500.

Mayer, 36, a New York City consumer researcher, won $2,500 last night by defeating Paul Bain, 38, a legal assistant and music student, also from New York City. They had tied in a number of previous sessions.

Mayer said he planned to use his winnings for the education of his 8-year-old son and for expansion of the research firm which he heads.

Bain left the show with $2,500—the amount of money which was at stake on each point of his final game with Mayer.

In a new contest last night, Dr. Richard A. Wall of Mount Vernon, N.Y., an organic chemist, won $8,500 by defeating Miss Judy Baily, a New York City interpreter.

HUNTER KILLED ACCIDENTALLY

MIFFLINBURG, Pa. (AP)—A Berks County man was fatally wounded by a companion yesterday while hunting near here with a party from the Reading area.

The victim, Donald Herman, 34, Birdsboro R. 2, died in Lewisburg Evangelical Community Hospital nearly eight hours after the shooting.

It was the only fatality reported on the opening day of the week long bear season.

Last night a jury at a coroner's inquest absolved Herman's companion, 21-year-old Robert J. Breedy of Reading of blame in the shooting and ruled the death was accidental.

State police, Union County Coroner Harry T. Beck and Game Protector John Shur, Lewisburg, investigated the shooting.

AILING TITO, 66, ACTS TO LIGHTEN HIS WORK LOAD

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—President Tito, 66 and ailing with lumbago, was reported today preparing to revamp Yugoslavia's government and party lineups in a move to lighten his own work load.

Informed Belgrade sources said he plans to make Edvard Kardelj the leader of the Yugoslav government and Aleksandar Rankovic the leader of the Yugoslav Communist party.

Kardelj and Rankovic, two of Tito's closest collaborators, are now vice presidents.

The sources indicated Kardelj would become sort of a prime minister, with Tito retaining the post of president.

Rankovic, according to the sources, would take over the job of Communist party secretary-general, now held by Tito.

Shed Routine Work

Main purpose would be to take day-to-day routine work off the ailing Tito's shoulders. But he would still have a decisive say on top-level matters, the sources said.

They emphasized that Tito himself planned the changes and proposed them to the Communist party Central Committee, which reportedly has been examining them at closed meetings over the past several months.

Yugoslavia's Communist party is due to hold its next congress in the spring of 1958. It is considered possible the changes will be announced then.

PROMOTION STUNT

CARLSBAD, N.M. (AP)—City police here today were in a foul mood because Sam Jenkins was in a foul mood.

Jenkins released 33 turkeys from the roof of his furniture store and the public was invited to catch them. Attached to the turkeys' legs were coupons entitling the turkey nabber to discounts in Jenkins' store.

Police took a dim view of the resulting confusion and traffic jams and charged Jenkins with causing a public disturbance.

Jenkins pleaded innocent and said he planned to release 33 more birds today and again tomorrow.

Breedy, a naval airman stationed at Weston Field, Philadelphia, said his 270 - calibre rifle discharged while he was unloading it. The bullet struck Herman in the back and passed through his abdomen. The accident occurred on Branch Mountain, about eight miles northwest of here.

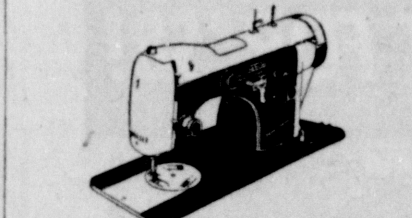

Do FALSE TEETH Rock, Slide or Slip?

FASTTEETH, an improved powder to be sprinkled on upper or lower plates, holds false teeth more firmly in place. Do not slide, slip or rock. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. FASTTEETH is alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTTEETH at any drug counter.

Thanksgiving Reunion
After the church service he left for St. Louis to visit a sister, Mrs. Paul Bryant. He plans a stop at Knoxville, Tenn., to see a brother.

CONGRESSMAN SET POLE-POLE FLIGHT RECORD
MCMURDO SOUND, Antarctica, (AP)—Six U. S. congressmen flew over the South Pole Monday and er, Charles, and hopes to be in Cracker Neck, Va., Wednesday for a Thanksgiving reunion with his parents and as many of his 12 brothers and sisters as can get home.

Dickenson plans to open a furniture repair shop at Nashville, Tenn., and study for the ministry at Free Will Baptist College at Nashville. He learned furniture repairing in prison.

Told Of Brainwashing
The Rev. Lester Jones, pastor of the congregation at Raytown, said Dickenson did not talk about his experience as a prisoner in Korea or about his life in Communist China after he refused to be repatriated.

He told the audience about Communist recruitment and brainwashing techniques.

After the armistice in Korea, 21 Americans elected to stay with the Communists when they were released from North Korean prison camps. Dickenson was the first to change his mind and come home.

They completed a trip from the North Pole to the South Pole in 14 days, bettering the mark set just a few weeks ago by Sir Hubert Wilkins. The veteran Australian explorer had made it in 35 days.

The congressmen's plane, a U. S. Air Force Globemaster piloted by Lt. Col. Dixon J. Arnold circled over the U. S. scientific station at the South Pole and dropped supplies.

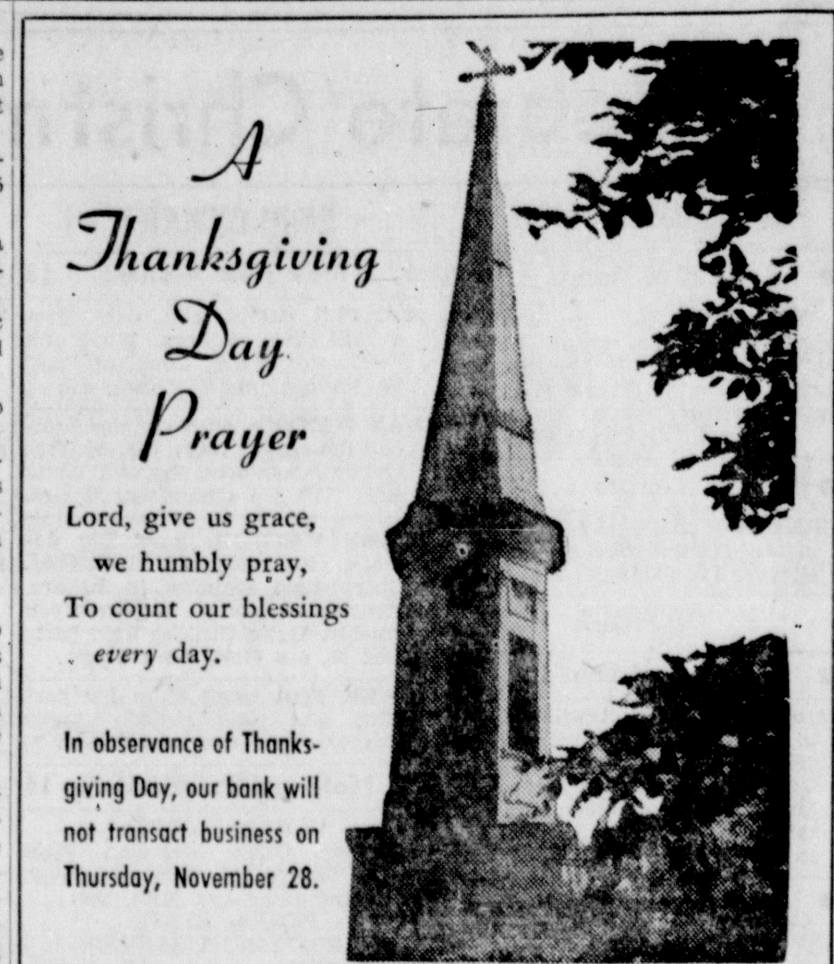

The congressmen sent a radio message to the station personnel. Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark) promised that the representatives would tell Congress about the valuable work the U. S. servicemen are doing in Antarctica.

Meet Home Folks
Then the plane headed back to the McMurdo Sound headquarters of the U. S. antarctic research teams. There the congressmen met personnel from their home states.

Reps. MacDonald (D-Mass), DeLoach (R-NY) and Harris expressed the opinion the people back home had not been fully informed of the difficulties encountered in the duty here and the work being done for science and national security.

The other congressmen on the trip are Reps. Hale (R-Maine), Friedel (D-Md) and Flynt Jr. (D-Ga.).

After lunch at McMurdo, the party set out in a Navy plane for a visit to Little America.
